AUTHORITY FOR PUBLICATION

OF THE

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL.

CHAPTER 683, LAWS OF 1892.

§ 25. Legislative Manual —The Secretary of State, at the expense of the State, shall annually prepare and publish the Legislative Manual, and a map of the State, exhibiting the route of all railroads and canals that are completed or in course of construction. The manual shall contain the Constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York, diagrams of the Senate and Assembly chambers, and such other information of the nature heretofore published therein, as he may consider useful, and shall be printed and bound in substantially the same style as heretofore. Within two weeks after the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature, and earlier if practicable, he shall deliver a copy of the manual and map to each member and officer of the Legislature, and to each State officer entitled to the session laws, with the name of each officer or member lettered on the copy of the manual sent to him.

MAGNA CHARTA.

The great charter of English liberty granted by King John at Runnymede, June 15, 1215.

John, by the grace of God king of England, lord of Ireland, duke of Normandy and Aquitaine, count of Anjou: to the archbishops, bishops, abbots, earls, barons, justices, foresters, sheriffs, prevosts, serving men, and to all his bailiffs and faithful subjects, greeting. Know that we, by the will of God and for the safety of our soul, and of the souls of all our predecessors and our heirs, to the honour of God and for the exalting of the holy church and the bettering of our realm: by the counsel of our venerable fathers Stephen archbishop of Canterbury, primate of all England and cardinal of the holy Roman church: of Henry archbishop of Dublin; of the bishops William of London, Peter of Winchester, Jocelin of Bath and Glastonbury, Hugo of Lincoln, Walter of Worcester, William of Coventry and Benedict of Rochester; of master Pandulf, subdeacon and of the household of the lord pope; of brother Aymeric, master of the knights of the Temple in England; and of the noble men, William Marshall earl of Pembroke, William earl of Salisbury, William earl of Warren, William earl of Arundel, Alan de Galway constable of Scotland, Warin son of Gerold, Peter son of Herbert, Hubert de Burgh seneschal of Poictiers, Hugo de Neville, Matthew son of Herbert, Thomas Basset, Alan Basset, Philip d'Aubigni, Robert de Roppelay, John Marshall, John son of Hugo, and others of our faithful subjects:

1. First of all have granted to God, and, for us and for our heirs forever, have confirmed, by this our present charter, that the English church shall be free and shall have its rights intact and its liberties uninfringed upon. And thus we will that it be observed. As is apparent from the fact that we, spontaneously and of our own free will, before discord broke out between ourseives and our barons, did grant and by our charter confirm—and did cause the lord pope Innocent III. to confirm—freedom of elections, which is considered most important and most necessary to the church of England. Which charter both we ourselves shall observe, and we will that it be observed with good faith by our heirs forever. We have also granted to all free men of our realm, on the part of ourselves and our heirs forever, all the subjoined liberties, to have and to hold, to them and to their heirs, from us and from our heirs:

2. If any one of our earls or barons, or of others holding from us in chief through military service, shall die; and if, at the time of his death, his heir be of full age and owe a relief: he shall have his inheritance by paying the old relief;—the heir, namely, or the heirs of an earl, by paying one hundred pounds for the whole barony of an earl; the heir or heirs of a baron, by paying one hundred pounds for the whole barony; the heir or heirs of a knight, by paying one hundred shillings at most for a whole knight's fee; and he who shall owe less shall give less, according to the ancient custom of fees.

3. But if the heir of any of the above persons shall be under age and in wardship,—when he comes of age he shall have his inheritance without relief and without finel

4. The administrator of the land of such heir who shal. be under age shall take none but reasonable issues from the land of the heir, and reasonable customs and services; and this without destruction and waste of men or goods.

And if we shall have committed the custody of any such land to the sheriff or to any other man who ought to be responsible to us for the issues of it, and he cause destruction or waste to what is in his charge: we will fine him, and the land shall be handed over to two lawful and discreet men of that fee who shall answer to us, or to him to whom we shall have referred them, regarding those issues. And if we shall have given or sold to any one the custody of any such land, and he shall have caused destruction or waste to it,—he shall lose that custody, and it shall be given to two lawful and discreet men of that fee, who likewise shall answer to us, as has been explained.

5. The administrator, moreover, so long as he may have the custody of the land, shall keep in order, from the issues of that land, the houses, parks, warrens, lakes, mills, and other things pertaining to it. And he shall restore to the heir when he comes to full age, his whole land stocked with plows and wainnages, according as the time of the wainnage requires and the issues of the land will reasonably permit.

6. Heirs may marry without disparagement; so, nevertheless, that, before the marriage is contracted, it shall be announced to the relations by blood of the heir himself.

7. A widow, after the death of her husband, shall straightway, and without difficulty, have her marriage portion and her inheritance, nor shall she give any thing in return for her dowry, her marriage portion, or the inheritance which belonged to her, and which she and her husband held on the day of the death of that husband. And she may remain in the house of her husband, after his death, for forty days; within which her dowry shall be paid over to her.

8. No widow shall be forced to marry when she prefers to live without a husband; so, however, that she gives security not to marry without our consent if she hold from us, or the consent of the lord from whom she holds, if she hold from another.

9. Neither we nor our bailiffs shall seize any revenue for any debt, so long as the chattels of the debtor suffice to pay the debt; nor shall the sponsors of that debtor be distrained so long as that chief debtor has enough to pay the debt. But if the chief debtor fail in paying the debt, not having the wherewithal to pay it, the sponsors shall answer for the debt. And, if they shall wish, they may have the lands and revenues of the debtor until satisfaction shall have been given them for the debt previously paid for him; unless the chief debtor shall show that he is quit in that respect towards those same sponsors.

10. If any one shall have taken any sum, great or small, as a loan from the Jews, and shall die before that debt is paid,—that debt shall not bear interest so long as the heir, from whomever he may hold, shall be under age. And if the debt fall into our hands, we shall take nothing save the chattel contained in the deed.

11. And if any one dies owing a debt to the Jews, his wife shall have her dowry, and shall restore nothing of that debt. But if there shall remain children of that dead man, and they shall be under age, the necessaries shall be provided for them according to the nature of the dead man's holding; and, from the residue, the debt shall be paid, saving the service due to the lords. In like manner shall be done concerning debts that are due to others besides Jews.

12. No scutage or aid shall be imposed in our realm unless by the common counsel of our realm; except for redeeming our body, and knighting our eldest son, and marrying once our eldest daughter. And for these purposes there shall only be given a reasonable aid. In like manner shall be done concerning the aids of the city of London.

13. And the city of London shall have all its old liberties and free customs as well by land as by water. Moreover we will and grant that all other cities and burroughs, and towns and ports, shall have all their liberties and free customs.

14. And, in order to have the common counsel of the realm in the matter of assessing an aid otherwise in the aforesaid cases, or of assessing a scutage,—we shall cause, under seal through our letters, the archbishops, bishops, abbots, earls, and greater barons to be summoned for a fixed day—for a term, namely, at least forty days distant, —and for a fixed place. And, moreover, we shall cause to be summoned in general, through our sheriffs and bailiffs, all those who hold of us in chief. And in all those letters of summons, we shall express the cause of the summons. And when a summons has thus been made, the business shall be proceeded with on the day appointed according to the counsel of those who shall be present, even though not all shall come who were summoned.

15. We will not allow any one henceforth to take an aid from his freemen save for the redemption of his body, and the knighting of his eldest son, the marrying, once, of his eldest daughter; and, for these purposes, there shall only be given a reasonable aid.

16. No one shall be forced to do more service for a knight's fee, or for another free holding, than is due from it.

17. Common pleas shall not follow our court but shall be held in a certain fixed place.

18. Assizes of novel disseisin, of mort d'ancestor, and of darrein presentment shall not be held save in their own counties, and in this way: we, or our chief justice, if we shall be absent from the kingdom, shall send two justices through each county four times a year; they, with four knights from each county, chosen by the county, shall hold the aforesaid assizes in the county, and on the day and at the place of the county court.

19. And if on the day of the county court the aforesaid assizes can not be held, a sufficient number of knights and free tenants, from those who were present at the county court on that day, shall remain, so that through them the judgments may be suitably given, according as the matter may have been great or small.

20. A freeman shall only be amerced for a small offence according to the measure of that offence. And for a great offence he shall be amerced according to the magnitude of the offence, saving his contenement; and a merchant, in the same way, saving his merchandize. And a villein, in the same way, if he fall under our mercy, shall be amerced saving his wainnage. And none of the aforesaid fines shall be imposed save upon oath of upright men from the neighborhood.

21. Earls and barons shall not be amerced save through their peers, and only according to the measure of the offence.

22. No clerk shall be amerced for his lay tenement except according to the manner of the other persons aforesaid; and not according to the amount of his ecclesiastical benefice.

23. Neither a town nor a man shall be forced to make bridges over the rivers, with the exception of those who, from of old and of right ought to do it.

24. No sheriff, constable, coroners, or other bailiffs of ours shall hold the pleas of our crown.

25. All counties, hundreds, wapentakes, and trithings —our demesne manors being excepted—shall continue according to the old farms, without any increase at all.

26. If any one holding from us a lay fee shall die, and our sheriff or bailiff can show our letters patent containing our summons for the debt which the dead man owed to us, —our sheriff or bailiff may be allowed to attach and enroll the chattels of the dead man to the value of that debt, through view of lawful men; in such way, however, that nothing shall be removed thence until the debt is paid which was plainly owed to us. And the residue shall be left to the executors that they may carry out the will of the dead man. And if nothing is owed to us by him, all the chattels shall go to the use prescribed by the deceased, saving their reasonable portions to his wife and children.

27. If any freeman shall have died intestate his chattels shall be distributed through the hands of his near relatives and friends, by view of the church; saving to any one the debts which the dead man owed him.

28. No constable or other bailiff of ours shall take the corn or other chattels of any one except he straightway give money for them, or can be allowed a respite in that regard by the will of the seller.

29. No constable shall force any knight to pay money for castle-ward if he be willing to perform that ward in person, or—he for a reasonable cause not being able to perform it himself—through another proper man. And if we shall have led or sent him on a military expedition, he shall be quit of ward according to the amount of time during which, through us, he shall have been in military service.

30. No sheriff or bailiff of ours, nor any one else, shall take the horses or carts of any freeman for transport, unless by the will of that freeman.

31. Neither we nor our bailiffs shall take another's wood for castles or for other private uses, unless by the will of him to whom the wood belongs.

32. We shall not hold the lands of those convicted of felony longer than a year and a day; and then the lands shall be restored to the lords of the fiefs.

33. Henceforth all the weirs in the Thames and Medway, and throughout all England, save on the sea coast, shall be done away with entirely.

34. Henceforth the writ which is called Praecipe shall not be served on any one for any holding so as to cause a free man to lose his court.

35. There shall be one measure of wine throughout our whole realm, and one measure of ale and one measure of corn—namely, the London quart;—and one width of dyed and russet and hauberk cloths—Namely, two ells below the selvage. And with weights, moreover, it shall be as with measures.

36. Henceforth nothing shall be given or taken for a writ of inquest in a matter concerning life or limb; but it shall be conceded gratis, and shall not be denied.

37. If any one hold of us in fee-farm, or in socage, or in burkage, and hold land of another by military service, we shall not, by reason of that fee-farm, or socage, or burkage, have the wardship of his heir or of his land which is held in fee from another. Nor shall we have the wardship of that fee-farm, or socage, or burkage unless that fee-farm owe military service. We shall not, by reason of some petit serjeanty which someone holds of us through the service of giving us knives or arrows or the like, have the wardship of his heir or of the land which he holds of another by military service.

38. No bailiff, on his own simple assertion, shall henceforth put any one to his law, without producing faithful witnesses in evidence.

39. No freeman shall be taken, or imprisoned, or disseized, or outlawed, or exiled, or in any way harmed—nor will we go upon or send upon him—save by the lawful judgment of his peers or by the law of the land.

40. To none will we sell, to none deny or delay, right or justice.

41. All merchants may safely and securely go out of England, and come into England, and delay and pass through England, as well by land as by water, for the purpose of buying and selling, free from all evil taxes, subject to the ancient and right customs—save in time of war, and if they are of the land at war against us. And if such be found in our land at the beginning of the war, they shall be held, without harm to their bodies and goods, until it shall be known to us or our chief justice how the merchants of our land are to be treated who shall, at that time, be found in the land at war against us. And if ours shall be safe there, the others shall be safe in our land.

42. Henceforth any person, saving fealty to us, may go out of our realm and return to it, safely and securely, by land and by water, except perhaps for a brief period in time of war, for the common good of the realm. But prisoners and outlaws are excepted according to the law of the realm; also people of a land at war against us, and the merchants, with regard to whom shall be done as we have said.

43. If any one hold from any escheat—as from the honour of Wallingford, Nottingham, Boloin, Lancaster, or the other escheats which are in our hands and are baronies—and shall die, his heir shall not give another relief, nor shall he perform for us other service than he would perform for a baron if that barony were in the hand of a baron; and we shall hold it in the same way in which the baron has held it.

44. Persons dwelling without the forest shall not henceforth come before the forest justices, through common summonses, unless they are impleaded or are the sponsors of some person or persons attached for matters concerning the forest.

45. We will not make men justices, constables, sheriffs, or bailiffs, unless they are such as know the law of the realm, and are minded to observe it rightly.

46. All barons who have founded abbeys for which they have charters of the kings of England, or ancient right of tenure, shall have, as they ought to have, their custody when vacant.

47. All forests constituted as such in our time shall straightway be annulled; and the same shall be done for river banks made into places of defence by us in our time.

48. All evil customs concerning forests and warrens, and concerning foresters and warreners, sheriffs and their servants, river banks and their guardians, shall straightway be inquired into in each county, through twelve sworn knights from that county, and shall be eradicated by them, entirely, so that they shall never be renewed, within forty days after the inquest has been made; in such manner that we shall first know about them, or our justice if we be not in England.

49. We shall straightway return all hostages and charters which were delivered to us by Englishmen as a surety for peace or faithful service.

50. We shall entirely remove from their bailiwicks the relatives of Gerard de Athyes, so that they shall henceforth have no bailiwick in England: Engelard de Cygnes, Andrew Peter and Gyon de Chanceles, Gyon de Cygnes, Geoffrey de Martin and his brothers, Philip Mark and his brothers, and Geoffrey his nephew, and the whole following of them.

51. And straightway after peace is restored we shall remove from the realm all the foreign soldiers, crossbowmen, servants, hirelings, who may have come with horses and arms to the harm of the realm.

52. If any one shall have been disseized by us, or removed, without a legal sentence of his peers, from his lands, castles, liberties or lawful right, we shall straightway restore them to him. And if a dispute shall arise concerning this matter it shall be settled according to the judgment of the twenty-five barons who are mentioned below as sureties for the peace. But with regard to all those things of which any one was, by king Henry our father or king Richard our brother, disseized or dispossessed without legal judgment of his peers, which we have in our hand or which others hold, and for which we ought to give a guarrantee: We shall have respite until the common term for crusaders. Except with regard to those concerning which a plea was moved, or an inquest made by our order, before we took the cross. But when we return from our pilgrimage, or if, by chance, we desist from our pilgrimage, we shall straightway then show full justice regarding them.

53. We shall have the same respite, moreover, and in the same manner, in the matter of showing justice with regard to forests to be annulled and forests to remain, which Henry our father or Richard our brother constituted; and in the matter of wardships of lands which belong to the fee of another—wardships of which kind we have hitherto enjoyed by reason of the fee which some one held from us in military service;—and in the matter of abbeys founded in the fee of another than ourselves—in which the lord of the fee may say that he has jurisdiction. And when we return, or if we desist from our pilgrimage, we shall straightway exhibit full justice to those complaining with regard to these matters.

54. No one shall be taken or imprisoned on account of the appeal of a woman concerning the death of another than her husband.

55. All fines imposed by us unjustly and contrary to the law of the land, and all amerciaments made unjustly and contrary to the law of the land, shall be altogether remitted, or it shall be done with regard to them according to the judgment of the twenty five barons mentioned below as sureties for the peace, or according to the judgment of the majority of them together with the aforesaid Stephen archbishop of Canterbury, if he can be present, and with others whom he may wish to associate with himself for this purpose. And if he cannot be present, the affair shall nevertheless proceed without him; in such way that, if one or more of the said twenty five barons shall be concerned in a similar complaint, they shall be removed as to this particular decision, and, in their place, for this purpose alone, others shall be substituted who shall be chosen and sworn by the remainder of those twenty five.

56. If we have disseized or dispossessed Welshmen of their lands or liberties or other things without legal judgment of their peers, in England or in Wales,—they shall straightway be restored to them. And if a dispute shall arise concerning this, then action shall be taken upon it in the March through judgment of their peers—concerning English holdings according to the law of England, concerning Welsh holdings according to the law of Wales, concerning holdings in the March according to the law of the March. The Welsh shall do likewise with regard to us and our subjects.

57. But with regard to all those things of which any of the Welsh was, by king Henry our father or king Richard our brother, disseized or dispossessed without legal judgment of his peers, which we have in our hand or which others hold, and for which we ought to give a guarantee: we shall have respite until the common term for crusaders. Except with regard to those concerning which a plea was moved, or an inquest made by our order, before we took the cross. But when we return from our pilgrimage, or if, by chance, we desist from our pilgrimage, we shall straightway then show full justice regarding them, according to the laws of Wales and the aforesaid districts.

58. We shall straightway return the son of Llewelin and all the Welsh hostages, and the charters delivered to us as surety for the peace.

59. We shall act towards Alexander king of the Scots regarding the restoration of his sisters, and his hostages, and his liberties and his lawful right, as we shall act towards our other barons of England; unless it ought to be otherwise according to the charters which we hold from William, his father, the former king of the Scots. And this shall be done through judgment of his peers in our court.

60. Moreover all the subjects of our realm, clergy as well as laity, shall, as far as pertains to them, observe with regard to their vassals, all these aforesaid customs and liberties which we have decreed shall, as far as pertains to us, be observed in our realm with regard to our own.

61. Inasmuch as, for the sake of God, and for the bettering of our realm, and for the more ready healing of the discord which has arisen between us and our barons, we have made all these aforesaid concessions,—wishing them to enjoy for ever entire and firm stability, we make and grant to them the following security: that the barons, namely, may elect at their pleasure twenty five barons from the realm, who ought, with all their strength, to observe, maintain and cause to be observed, the peace and privileges which we have granted to them and confirmed by this our present charter. In such wise, namely, that if we, or our justice, or our bailiffs, or any one of our servants shall have transgressed against any one in any respect, or shall have broken some one of the articles of peace or security, and our transgression shall have been shown to four barons of the aforesaid twenty-five: those four barons shall come to us, or, if we are abroad, to our justice, showing to us our error; and they shall ask us to cause that error to be amended without delay. And if we do not amend that error, or, we being abroad, if our justice do not amend it within a term of forty days from the time when it was shown to us or, we being abroad, to our justice: the aforesaid four barons shall refer the matter to the remainder of the twenty five barons, and those twenty five barons, with the whole land in common, shall distrain and oppress us in every way in their power,—namely, by taking our castles, lands and possessions and in every other way that they can, until amends shall have been made according to their judgment. Saving the persons of ourselves, our queen and our children. And when amends shall have been made they shall be in accord with us as they had been previously. And whoever of the land wishes to do so, shall swear that in carrying out all the aforesaid measures he will obey the mandates of the aforesaid twenty five barons, and that, with them, he will oppress us to the extent of his power. And, to any one who wishes to do so, we publicly and freely give permission to swear; and we will never prevent any one from swearing. Moreover, all those in the land who shall be unwilling themselves and of their own accord to swear to the twenty five barons as to distraining and oppressing us with them: such ones we shall make to swear by our mandate, as has been said. And if any one of the twenty five barons shall die, or leave the country, or in any other way be prevented from carrying out the aforesaid measures,—the remainder of the aforesaid twenty five barons shall choose another in his place, according to their judgment, who shall be sworn in the same way as the others. Moreover, in all things entrusted to those twenty five barons to be carried out, if those twenty five shall be present and chance to disagree among themselves with regard to some matter, or if some of them, having been summoned shall be unwilling or unable to be present: that which the majority of those present shall decide or decree shall be considered binding and valid, just as if all the twenty five had consented to it. And the aforesaid twenty five shall swear that they will faithfully observe all the foregoing and will cause them to be observed to the extent of their power. And we shall obtain nothing from any one, either through ourselves or through another, by which any of those concessions and liberties may be revoked or diminished. And if any such thing shall have been obtained, it shall be vain and invalid, and we shall never make use of it either through ourselves or through another.

62. And we have fully remitted to all, and pardoned, all the ill-will, anger and rancour which have arisen between us and our subjects, clergy and laity, from the time of the struggle. Moreover we have fully remitted to all, clergy and laity, and—as far as pertains to us—have pardoned fully all the transgressions committed, on the occasion of that same struggle, from Easter of the sixteenth year of our reign until the re-establishment of peace. In witness of which, moreover, we have caused to be drawn up for them letters patent of lord Stephen, archbishop of Canterbury, lord Henry, archbishop of Dublin, and the aforesaid bishops and master Pandulf, regarding that surety and the aforesaid concessions.

63. Wherefore we will and firmly decree that the English church shall be free, and that the subjects of our realm shall have and hold all the aforesaid liberties, rights and concessions, duly and in peace, freely and quietly, fully and entirely, for themselves and their heirs, from us and our heirs in all matters and in all places, forever, as has been said. Moreover it has been sworn, on our part as well as on the part of the barons, that all these above mentioned provisions shall be observed with good faith and without evil intent. The witnesses being the above mentioned and many others. Given through our hand, in the plain called Runnimede between Windsor and Stanes, on the fifteenth day of June, in the seventeenth year of our reign.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

IN CONGRESS.

JULY 4, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE

THIRTEEN UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial

by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do in the name, and by authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honour.

THE CONSTITUTION.

We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America.

See 1 Abb. Nat. Digest, 746; Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 Dall. 471; Lane v. Oregon, 7 Wall. 71; Texas v. White, Id. 700. This constitution is to be regarded as emanating not from the states as governments but directly from the people. McCullough v. Maryland, 4 Wheat. 316, 403; Barron v. Baltimore, 7 Pet. 243; Gibbons v. Ogden, 9 Wheat. 1.

The sovereignty of the United States and that of a state are independent of each other within their respective spheres of action, although both exist and exercise their powers within the same territorial limits. Ableman v. Booth, 21 How. 506; United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542.

Constitution not construed with reference to decisions of English courts, if Supreme Court and Congress have placed different construction thereon. The Huntress, 2 Ware, 89.

Construction of constitutional amendment necessarily occasioning great public and private mischief, never preferred to construction which will occasion neither. In re Griffin, Fed. Cas. No. 5815.

Meaning of "United States" in revenue law—ceded territory not incorporated in. Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U. S. 1088; Dooley v. U. S., Id. 1074; Goetze v. U. S., Id. 1066.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.

1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

Story's Const., chaps. 7 and 8; 2 Dall. 409.
Grant of power to be construed according to fair import of its terms. In re Jackson, Fed. Cas. 7124; 14 Blatchf. 245.

SECTION 2.

1. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states ; and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 69.

2. No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 23, 167, 224, 411, 497.

3. Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three; Massachusetts, eight; Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, one ; Connecticut, five; New York, six; New Jersey, four; Pennsylvania, eight; Delaware, one; Maryland, six; Virgina, ten; North Carolina, five; South Carolina, five; and Georgia, three.

See Hylton v. United States, 3 Dall. 171; Springer v. United States, 102 U. S. 586; Scholey v. Reed, 23 Wall. 331.

4. When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 44, 92.

5. The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers, and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECTION 3.

1. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators for each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

See Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat. 390.

2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

1 Cong. Election Cas. 869.

ARTICLE I—Continued.

3. No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen,

1 Cong. Election Cas. 851.

4. The vice-president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote unless they be equally divided.

1 Story's Const., §739.

5. The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore in the absence of the vice-president or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

6. The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

7. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States; but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

SECTION 4.

1. The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators.

ARTICLE I—Continued.

2. The congress shall assemble at least once in every year; and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5.

1. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under sueh penalties as each house may provide.

See Thomas v. Loney, 134 U. S. 372; People ex rel. Hatzel v. Hall, 80 N. Y. 121.

2. Each house may determine the rule of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

Kilbourn v. Thompson, 103 U. S. 168.

3. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may, in their judgment, require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

4. Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6.

1. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall, in all cases except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

3 Dall. 478; 4 id. 341. See also Coffin v. Coffin, 4 Mass. 127 (3 Am. Dec. 189); Tiedeman State and Fed. Control of Persons and Property, Vol. 1, p. 47.

2. No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased, during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

SECTION 7.

1. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with the amendments as on other bills.

2. Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated; who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

Approval of president not required to resolution proposing amendment to constitution. Hollingsworth v. Virginia, 1 L. Ed. 644.

3. Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment), shall be presented to the president of the United States; and, before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him; or, being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

SECTION 8.

The congress shall have power :

1. To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises; to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States ; but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

See United States v. Hill, 123 U. S. 681; Scholey v. Rew, 23 Wall. 331; U. S. v. R. Co., 17 id. 322; Railroad Co. v. Peniston, 18 id. 5; U. S. v. Singer, 15 id. 111.

As to status of Porto Rico see De Luna v. Bidwell, 182 U. S. 1041; Dooley v. United States, Id. 1074; Downes v. Bidwell, Id. 1088; Christian Huris v. N. Y. & P. R. Steamship Co., Id. 1146.

2. To borrow money on the credit of the United States.

3. To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states, and with the Indian tribes.

See Bain v. Richmond, etc., R. Co. (N. C.), 3 L. R. A. 299; Emmons v. City of Lewiston, id. 329; Louisville, etc., R. Co. v. State, 66 Miss. 662; 14 Am. St. 602; Steamboat v. Livingston, 3 Cow. 713; Pembina, etc., Co. v. Pennsylvania, 125 U. S. 181; Wabash, etc., R. Co. v. Illinois, 118 id. 557; Fargo v. Stevens, id. 230; Foster v. Masters, etc., 94 id. 246; Tinken v. Stillwagon, 1 City Ct. Rep. 390. Includes a control of the electric telegraph as an agency of commerce. Pensacola Tel. Co. v. West. Union Tel. Co., 96 U. S. 1.

In Kidd v. Pearson, 128 U. S. 1, the court say: "The legal definition of the term, as given by this court in County of Mobile v. Kimball, 102 U. S. 691, 702, is as follows: 'Commerce with foreign nations and among the states, strictly considered, consists in intercourse and traffic, including in these terms navigation and the transportation and transit of persons and property as well as the purchase, sale and exchange of commodities.'"

Act regulating sale of oleomargarine held valid. Plumley v. Mass., 155 U. S. 461.

Power of national executive to employ military to remove obstructions to interstate commerce. In re Debs, 158 U. S. 569; Illinois Cent. Ry. Co. v. State of Illinois, 163 id. 142.

Importation of certain articles in original packages, effect of. See Scott v. Donald, 165 U. S. 558.

4. To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States.

Bankruptcy.—Sturgis v. Crownshield, 4 Wheat. 122; McMillan v. McNeil, id. 209; Farmers', etc., v. Pennsylvania, 6 id. 131; Ogden v. Saunders, 12 id. 213.

Naturalization.—Dred Scott v. Sanford, 19 How. 393; Gassies v. Ballou, 6 Pet. 761.

5. To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures.

Congress has the constitutional power to make the treasury notes of the United States a legal tender in payment of private debts in time of peace as well as in time of war. Juillard v. Greenman, 110 U. S. 421; 28 Am. L. Reg. (U. S.) 734.

6. To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States.

See Fox v. State, 5 How. 433; U. S. v. Marigold, 9 id. 560.

7. To establish post-offices and post-roads.

Pensacola Tel. Co. v. West. Union, etc., Co., 96 U. S. 1; State v. Wheeling, etc., Bridge Co., 18 How. 421.

8. To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times, to authors and inventors, the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries.

See United States v. American Bell Telephone Co., 128 U. S. 315; Gardner v. Herz, 118 id. 180; Wheat. v. Peters, 8 Pet. 591; Grant v. Raymond, 6 id. 218.

The means for securing such right are to be prescribed by congress. Banks v. Manchester, 128 U. S. 244.

9. To constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court.

10. To define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations.

See U. S. v. Palmer, 3 Wheat. 610; U. S. v. Wiltberger, 5 id. 76; U. S. v. Smith, id. 153; U. S. v Pirates, id. 184.

11. To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water, Laman v. Brown, 92 U. S. 187; Hamilton v. Dillin, 21 Wall. 73; Stewart v. Kahn, 11 id. 493; Tyler v. Defries, id. 331; Miller v. U. S., id. 268.

12. To raise and support armies; but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years.

Crandall v. State, 6 Wall. 35.

13. To provide and maintain a navy.

Dynes v. Hooper, 20 How. 65.

14. To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces.

15. To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.

Crandall v. State, 6 Wall. 35; Texas v. White, 7 id. 700.

16. To provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States; reserving to the states respectively the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress.

Houston v. Moore, 5 Wheat. 1; Martin v. Mott, 12 id. 19; Luther v. Borden, 7 How. 1.

17. To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of government of the United States; and to exercise like authority over all places purchased, by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings; and

U. S. v. Fox, 94 U. S. 315; Phillips v. Payne, 92 id. 130; Willard v. Presbury, 14 Wall. 676; Dumphy v. Kleinsmith, 11 id. 610; U. S. v. Dewitt, 9 id. 41.

18. To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

Nat. Bank v. Com., 9 Wall. 353; Thompson v. Railway Co., Id. 579; Parker v. Davis, 12 id. 457; Railroad v. Johnson, 15 id. 195; Railroad v. Peniston, 18 id. 5.

Porto Rico became territory appurtenant to the United States but not a part of the United States. Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U. S. 1088; Goetze v. United States, Id. 1066.

Porto Rico and the United States were foreign countries with respect to each other, while the island was under military occupation. Dooley v. United States, 182 U. S. 1074.

SECTION 9.

1. The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight; but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

Dred Scott v. Sanford, 19 How. 393.

2. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

ARTICLE I—Continued.

3. No bill of attainder, or ex post facto law shall be passed.

Hope v. People, 110 U. S. 589; Kring v. Missouri, 107 id. 221; Pierce v. Carskadon, 16 Wall. 234.

Statute changing minimum punishment, but leaving maximum punishment unchanged is constitutional. People v. Hayes, 140 N. Y. 484 and Tiedeman on State and Federal Control of Persons and Property, Vol. 1, pp. 86–92. See also Colder v. Bull, 3 Dall. 386.

4. No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

License Tax Cases, 5 Wall. 462.

5. No tax or duty shall be laid on any articles exported from any state. No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one state be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

Morgan's S. S. Co. v. Louisiana, 118 U. S. 455; Page v. Burgess, 92 id. 372.

6. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

See United States v. Johnston, 124 U. S. 236.

7. No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit and trust under them shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

SECTION 10.

1. No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts; or grant any title of nobility.

ARTICLE II.

Section 1.

1. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years; and, together with the vice-president chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

2. Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the congress; but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

3. *The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each, which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such a majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose, by ballot, one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then, from the highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the president. But in choosing the president, the vote shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every cas after the choice of the president, the person having th greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vic president. But if there should remain two or more wh have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them, b ballot, the vice-president.

4. The congress may determine the time of choosing th electors, and the day on which they shall give their vote which day shall be the same throughout the Unite States.

5. No person, except a natural born citizen, or a citize of the United States at the time of the adoption of thi constitution shall be eligible to the office of president neither shall any person be eligible to that office wh shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, an been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

6. In case of the removal of the president from office, o of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge th powers and duties of the said office, the same shall de volve on the vice-president; and the congress may, by law, provide for the case of removal, death, resignatio or inability, both of the president and vice-presi dent, and declaring what officer shall then act as president such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability b removed, or a president shall be elected.

7. The president shall, at stated times, receive for hi services a compensation which shall neither be increase nor diminished during the period for which he shall hav been elected; and he shall not receive within that perio

SECTION 3.

1. New states may be admitted by the congress into this Union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state, nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned, as well as of the congress.

Cross v. Harrison, 16 How. 164; Pollard v. Hagan, 3 How. 212; Amer. Ins. Co. v. Canter, 1 Pet. 511.

2. The congress shall have power to dispose of, and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular state.

ARTICLE V.

1. The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution; or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress; provided that no amendment, which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

1. All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this constitution shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution, as under the confederation.

2. This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thing those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.

In Matter of Spies, 123 U. S. 181, the court says: "That the first ten articles of amendment were not intended to limit the powers of the state government in respect to their own people, but to operate on the national government alone was decided more than a half century ago, and that decision has been steadily adhered to since."

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the states having, at the time of their adopting the constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislatures of the several states, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely:

ARTICLE I.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

U. S. v. Cruikshank, 92 U. S. 542. Freedom of religion cannot be extended to prevent the punishment of crimes. Davis v. Beacon, 133 U. S. 333. Whole power over subject of religion is left exclusively to state. Story on Cons. §1879.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

Presser v. Illinois, 116 U. S. 252.

ARTICLE III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, paper and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces; or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

See generally Paschal's Annotated Const. (2d ed.) 258; Matter of Sawyer, 124 U. S. 200.

The object of the constitutional provision "that no person shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself" was not to prevent the passing of laws allowing the accused to testify in his own behalf if he choose to avail himself of that privilege, but to prevent the enactment of statutes by which the accused might be subjected to actual compulsion to give evidence. When United States government has power to make treasury notes legal tender, see Juillard v Greenman, 110 U. S. 421.

As to power of United States to acquire new territory, see Tiedeman State and Fed. Control of Persons and Property, vol. 2, p. 1008.

Foregoing amendments construed. Maxwell v. Dow, 176 U. S. 581.

[The following amendment was proposed at the second session of the third congress. It is printed in the Laws of the United States, vol. 1, p. 73, as article 11.]

ARTICLE XI.

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

See art. III, section 1, ante; Paschal's Annotated Const. (2nd ed.) 270; Matter of Ayers, 123 U. S. 443; New Hampshire v. Louisiana, 108 id. 76; Cunningham v. Macon, etc., R. Co., 109 id. 446.

This amendment was caused by the decision in the Chisholm Case, 2 Dall. 419. See New York v. Louisiana, 108 U. S. 76.

And is limited to those suits in which the state is a real party or a party on the record. County of Lincoln v. Luning, 133 U. S. 529; Hagood v. Southern, 117 id. 52.

A state cannot be sued in a circuit court of the United States by one of its own citizens upon the ground that the case is one that arises under the constitution or laws of the United States. Hans v. State, 134 U. S. 1; 24 Fed. Rep'r, 55.

An action by a taxpayer against a collector of taxes who has refused a tender of coupons which the state is bound to receive is not an action against the state but against the officer personally. Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U. S. 270.

A suit against a state officer to compel him to do what a statute requires of him is not a suit against the state. Rolston v. Missouri etc., 120 U. S. 390.

[The three following sections were proposed as amendments at the first session of the eighth congress. They are printed in the Laws of the United States as article 12.]

ARTICLE XII.

1. The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice-president, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice-president; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice-president, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for president shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president, whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice-president shall act as president as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president.

2. The person having the greatest number of votes as vice-president shall be the vice-president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list the senate shall choose the vice-president. A quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

3. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice-president of the United States.

In Fitzgerald v. Green, 134 U. S. 377, the court says: "The sole function of the presidential electors is to cast, certify and transmit the vote of the state for the president and vice-president of the nation. Although the electors are appointed and act under and pursuant to the constitution of the United States, they are no more officers or agents of the United States than are the members of the state legislatures when acting as electors of federal senators or the people of the states when acting as electors of representatives in congress."

ARTICLE XIII.*

SECTION 1.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

*Proposed by congress February 1, 1865. Ratification announced by secretary of state December 18, 1865.

ARTICLE XIV.

SECTION 1.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

This amendment was proposed by congress June 16, 1866. Ratification announced by seeretary of state July 28, 1868. See Paschal's Annotated Const. (2d ed.) 280.

Rep. 786; Minneapolis, etc., R. Co. v. Beckwith, 129 U. S. 26. Corporations are not "citizens." Pembina Mining Co. v. Pennsylvania, 125 U. S. 181.

A State may pass laws regulating the privileges and immunities of its own citizens, which do not abridge their privileges and immunities as citizens of the United States. Presser v. Illinois, 116 U. S. 252.

The right to sell intoxicating liquors is not one of the "privileges and immunities," etc. Matter of Hoover, 30 Fed. Rep'r, 51.

A resident of a state is not a citizen there unless he intends by residence therein to become a citizen. Sharon v. Hill, 26 Fed. Rep'r, 337.

This amendment does not interfere with the police power of the states. Barbier v. Connolly, 113 U. S. 27; Powell v. Penn, 127 id. 678; Mugler v. Kansas, 123 id.

But the exercise of the police power of the states does not warrant the enactment of laws infringing positive provisions of the federal constitution. Walling v. Michigan, 116 U. S. 446.

What is not unreasonable search, etc. People v. Coombs, 158 N. Y. 532.

SECTION 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice-president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

SECTION 3.

No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice-president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who having previously taken an oath as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

SECTION 4.

The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5.

The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

The Constitution.

WE, THE PEOPLE of the State of New York, grateful to Almighty God for our Freedom, in order to secure its blessings, DO ESTABLISH THIS CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE. The origin of the State government was the 20th April, 1777. Jackson v. White, 20 Johns, 313.

The rule against statutory interference with vested rights, does not apply to a Constitution. Matter of Bank, 21 N. Y. 9.

The Constitution should be so construed as best to promote the objects for which it was made, avoiding the two extremes of a liberal or a strict construction. North River Steamboat Co. v. Livingston, 3 Cow. 713.

The courts, in construing the Constitution, have nothing to do with the argument ab inconvenienti. People v. Morrell, 21 Wend. 563; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 100.

Statutes are presumed constitutional. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 533.

An act must be constitutional in substance as well as form. People v. Allen, 42 N. Y. 404.

The constitutionality of statutes ought not to be passed upon unless necessary. Frees v. Ford, 6 N. Y. 176; People ex rel. Wetmore v. Supervisors of New York, 2 Keyes, 288.

Nor should a statute be pronounced unconstitutional except in a case where there is no rational doubt. Ex parte McCollum, 1 Cow. 450; Clarke v. City of Rochester, 24 Barb. 446.

A conflict between the Constitution and a statute should not be implied. Cochran v.Van Surlay, 20 Wend. 365; Newell v. People, 7 N. Y. 9, 109; People v. Fisher, 24 Wend. 215.

There must be a clear conflict. Roosevelt v. Godard, 52 Barb. 533; People v. Bennett, 54 id. 480.

A statute is not unconstitutional unless in direct and necessary conflict with the Constitution. Grant v. Courter, 24 Barb. 232; Morris v. People, 3 Den. 381.

Nor unless it cannot be supported by any reasonable intendment or allowable presumption. People v. Supervisors of Orange, 17 N. Y. 235.

Nor because it merely conflicts with the spirit of the Constitution People v. N. Y. Cent. R. R. Co., 24 N. Y. 485.

A law unconstitutional in part may be enforced as to its constitutional provisions. Matter of De Vancene, 31 How. Pr. 289, 343.

Material and actual injury must be shown to warrant the court in pronouncing a statute unconstitutional. People v. Canal Board, 55 N. Y. 390.

A statute cannot be held unconstitutional when it may be constitutionally executed. People v. Rochester, 50 N. Y. 525.

A statute evading the terms, and frustrating the general and clearly expressed, or necessarily implied, purposes of the Constitution, is as clearly void, as if expressly forbidden. People v. Albertson, 55 N. Y. 50.

A constitutional prohibition should not be extended by construction from motives of convenience or policy. Settle v. Van Evrea, 49 N. Y. 280.

The long-continued and undisputed practical construction of a constitutional provision by the Legislature has almost the force of judicial exposition in its interpretation. People ex rel. Williams v. Dayton, 55 N. Y. 367

An act susceptible of valid or invalid construction, courts favor construction in favor of validity. Sun, etc., Co. v. Mayor, 8 App. Div. 230.

Journal of constitutional convention may be consulted on question of constitutional construction. Goedel v. Palmer, 15 App. Div. 86.

Where act may be corruptly administered, no reason for holding it unconstitutional. People ex rel. Nechamcus v. Warden, 144 N. Y. 529.

ARTICLE I.

Persons not to be disfranchised.—Section 1. No member of this State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizen thereof, unless by the law of the land, or the judgment of his peers.

LAW OF THE LAND.—These words do not mean a statute passed by the Legislature for the purpose of working the wrong. The meaning is, that no member of the State shall be disfranchised, or deprived of any right or privilege, unless the matter shall be adjudged against him upon trial had according to the course of the common law. It must be ascertained judicially that he has forfeited his privileges, or that some one else has a superior title to the property he possesses, before either of them can be taken from him. It cannot be done by mere legislation. Taylor v. Porter, 4 Hill, 140 White v. White, 5 Barb. 474; People v. Toynbee, 20 id. 198.

Separate schools for colored children are permissible. People v. Gallagher, 93 N. Y. 438; S. C. 45 Am. Rep. 232.

Misdemeanor for one convicted of a felony to practice medicine. People v. Hawker, 152 N. Y. 234.

Legislature may abolish an office created by it. People ex rel. Mitchell v. Sturges, 156 N. Y. 580.

Act prohibiting more than eight hours' labor per day on city work held constitutional. People v. Warren, 77 Hun, 120.

Act prohibiting child under fourteen years as a dancer valid. People v. Ewer, 141 N. Y. 129.

Ordinance forbidding beating of drums valid. People v. Garabed, 20 Misc. 127.

Law providing that person or corporation contracting with the State, etc., shall not require more than eight hours' work for day's labor held constitutional. People v. Orange County Road Cons. Co., 73 App. Div. 580, reversing 37 Misc. 341.

Trial by jury.—§2. The trial by jury in all cases in which it has been heretofore used shall remain inviolate forever; but a jury trial may be waived by the parties in all civil cases in the manner to be prescribed by law.

TRIAL BY JURY.—The jury intended is a common-law jury of twelve men. Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 378. But not in eminent domain proceedings. Astor v. Mayor, 62 id. 580.

But a statute increasing the civil jurisdiction of justices' courts is not unconstitutional merely because it transfers a class of cases from courts of record, where juries are composed of twelve men, to justices' courts, where they consist of six. Dawson v. Horan, 51 Barb. 459; People ex rel. Metropolitan Board of Health, 6 Abb. Pr. (N. S.) 105.

The right to a jury trial extends only to cases in which it had been exercised before the adoption of the original Constitution. Duffy v. People, 6 Hill, 75.

The word "heretofore" in this clause of the Constitution of 1846, means before 1846, and not simply before 1777. People v. Wynehamer, 13 N. Y. 378.

A statute providing that the act of a person seen drinking liquor on the defendant's premises shall be presumptive evidence of the illegal sale, is unconstitutional. People v. Lyon, 27 Hun, 180.

Habitual criminals act valid. People v. McCarthy, 45 How. Pr. 97.

When a jury may be demanded.—On a criminal accusation for assault and battery; People v. Carroll, 3 Park, 22; for misdemeanors; People v. Johnson, 2 id. 322; under the prohibitory liquor law; Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 378; under law against bawdy-houses; Warren v. People, 3 Park. 544; in suits for penalties; Wood v. City of Brooklyn, 14 Barb. 425; for public intoxication; Hill v. People, 20 N. Y. 363; on a claim for breach of contract by a municipal corporation; Baldwin v. New York, 2 Keyes, 387; on question of damages in action for specific performance; Stevenson v. Buxton, 37 Barb. 13; in an action in nature of quo warranto; People v. Albany and Susquehanna R. Co., 57 N. Y. 161; in an action to abate a nuisance; Hudson v. Clary, 44 id. 553. See, also, Sands v. Kimbark, 27 id. 147; Metropolitan Board of Health v. Heister, 37 id. 661.

When a jury cannot be demanded.—On proceedings by a corporation to expel a member; People ex rel. Thatcher v. N. Y. Coml. Assn., 18 Abb. 271; on inquiry of board by excise whether an applicant is a fit person to license; People ex rel. Presmeyer v. Comrs. of Police, etc., of Brooklyn, 59 N. Y. 92; on question of fact arising on motions; Porter v. Parmly, 59 Supr. 219; on proceedings against disorderly persons; Duffy v. People, 6 Hill, 75; Plato v. People, 3 Park. 386; on proceedings on recognizances; Gildersleeve v. People, 10 Barb. 35; in equity cases; Rathbun v. Rathbun, 3 How. Pr. 139; Coleman v. Dixon, 50 N. Y. 592; on proceedings to enforce personal liability of shareholder in corporation; Matter of Empire City Bank, 18 id. 199; to close business of insolvent corporation; Case of Mechanics Fire Ins. Co., 5 Abb. Pr. 444; to determine whether private property is needed for public uses; People ex rel. Herrick v. Smith, 21 N. Y. 595; on assessments of damages for property taken for public use; Livingston v. New York, 8 Wend. 85; Beekman v. Saratoga and Schenectady R. Co., 3 Pai. 45; claims by receivers of corporations against individuals; Sands v. Tillinghast, 24 How. Pr. 435; in actions involving examination of long accounts; Van Marter v. Hotchkiss, 1 Keyes 585; on proceeding to determine claims to custody of children under apprenticeship; Matter of Donohue, 1 Abb. N. C. 1; in special proceedings such as those for the removal of tenants; Roberts v. Cone, 3 Alb. L. J. 151; in courts of special sessions; People v. Special Sessions, 74 N. Y. 406; in summary proceedings on recognizance;

People v. Quigg, 59 id. 83; in summary proceedings for punishment of public intoxication; People v. Burleigh, 1 N. Y. Cr. 522.

A jury trial is not guaranteed by the constitutional provision for "due process of law." Wynehamer v. People, 13 N. Y. 378.

A corporation is entitled to a jury wherever an individual is. People ex rel. Baldwin v. Haws, 37 Barb. 440.

A trial by twelve jurors cannot legally be waived by the prisoner in a criminal case. People v. Cancemi, 18 N. Y. 128.

In civil cases a jury may be waived; Embury v. Connor, 3 N. Y. 511; it is waived by taking part in an assessment of damages for land taken for public improvement; People v. Murray, 5 Hill, 468; by receiving the damages awarded; Heyward v. Mayor of N. Y. 8 Barb. 486; 7 N. Y. 486; by consenting to a reference; Lee v. Tillotson, 24 Wend. 337. See People v. Quigg, 59 N. Y. 83.

The legislature may constitutionally change the laws as to the mode of procuring and impaneling a jury; Stokes v. People, 53 N. Y. 164; for example, as to the territory from which they may be summoned; Gardiner v. People, 6 Park. 155; as to challenges to the people; Walter v. People, 32 N. Y. 147.

Courts-martial are recognized by the Constitution; People ex rel. v. Daniell, 50 N. Y. 274; and their fines may be enforced by legislative provision; People v. Daniell, Id.

Act authorizing foreclosure of mechanic's lien without a jury valid. Schillinger Cement Co. v. Arnott, 152 N. Y. 584.

Act providing for special jury in certain counties valid. People v. Dunn, 157 N. Y. 528.

Freedom of worship; religious liberty.—§ 3. The free exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination or preference, shall forever be allowed in this State to all mankind; and no person shall be rendered incompetent to be a witness on account of his opinions on matters of religious belief; but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or justify practices inconsistent with the peace or safety of this State.

This provision does not shield a witness from cross-examination as to his religious belief. Stanbro v. Hopkins, 28 Barb. 265.

A law against theatrical representations on Sunday is valid. Lindenmuller v. People, 33 Barb. 548; Neuendorff v. Duryea, 69 N. Y. 557; S. C., 25 Am. Rep. 235.

Habeas Corpus.—§ 4. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require its suspension.

Excessive bail and fines—§ 5. Excessive bail shall not be required nor excessive fines imposed, nor shall cruel and unusual punishments be inflicted, nor shall witnesses be unreasonably detained.

The act of 1888, chap. 489, prescribing the use of electricity as the means of executing the death penalty, is constitutional. People ex rel. Kemmler v. Durston, 27 State Rep. 966.

Although there is a general maximum, Legislature may change or increase the punishment as to the particular localities. Matter of Bayard, 25 Hun, 546.

The provision as to excessive bail applies only to criminal proceedings. People v. Tweed, 13 Abb. (N. S.) 148.

Disqualification for office is not an unconstitutional punishment for crime. Barker v. People, 20 Johns, 427.

Legislature may change manner of inflicting death penalty. People ex rel. Kemmler v. Durston, 119 N. Y. 569.

Grand jury—Bill of rights.—§ 6. No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime (except in cases of impeachment, and in cases of militia when in actual service, and the land and naval forces in time of war, or which this State may keep with the consent of Congress in time of peace, and in cases of petit larceny, under the regulation of the Legislature), unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury, and in any trial in any court whatever the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person and with counsel as in civil actions. No person shall be subject to be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense; nor shall he be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

See People v. Sharp, 107 N. Y. 427; 1 Am. St. Rep. 851.

INDICTMENT.—A law allowing the indictment and trial of a burglar in any county into which he carries the property is valid. Mack v. People, 82 N. Y. 235; same principle, People v. Dowling, 84 id. 478.

Indictment by a grand jury de facto under an invalid statute is good. People v. Petrea, 92 N. Y. 128.

Provisions of Code Criminal Procedure relative to amending defective indictments are not violative of this section. People v. Johnson, 104 N. Y. 213.

COUNSEL—This provision entitles the accused to counsel on trials by courts-martial. People ex rel. Garling v. Van Allen, 55 N. Y. 31. Prisoner has a right to interview with counsel. People v. Riseley, 13 Abb. N. C. 186.

Policeman on trial before police board has no right to counsel. People v. Police Comrs., 31 Hun, 209.

TWICE IN JEOPARDY.—"Former jeopardy" does not protect against new trial. People v. Palmer, 109 N. Y. 413. A prisoner may be tried on a second indictment after a nol. pros. or supersedeas of the first to which a plea to the jurisdiction only had been overruled. Gardiner v. People, 6 Park. 155, 190.

A new trial cannot be granted where the prisoner has been acquitted of a felony. People v. Comstock, 8 Wend. 549.

A writ of error at the suit of the people will not lie after judgment for the defendant in a criminal case. People v. Corning, 2 N. Y. 9.

A prisoner, sentenced upon a regular trial and conviction, cannot be re-tried. Shepherd v. People, 25 N. Y. 406; but the judgment may be correct under the act of 1863. Hussey v. People, 47 Barb 503.

Where the conviction is reversed at the suit of the prisoner, a new trial may be ordered. People v. Ruloff, 5 Park. 77.

Where a prisoner has been put on trial, a juror cannot be withdrawn without his consent. People v. Barrett, 2 Cai. 304; Grant v. People, 4 Park. 527; Klock v. People, 2 id. 676.

In case of disagreement the jury may be discharged by the court; and the prisoner may be re-tried; People v. Goodwin, 18 Johns. 187; so where, being unable to agree, they separate without authority, and are afterward discharged. People v. Reagle, 60 Barb. 527.

In cases of misdemeanor the court of sessions may discharge the jury, without consent of the prisoner, and he may be tried again. People v. Denton, 2 Johns. Cas. 275.

Act imposing a condition on commutation of sentence is valid. People ex rel. Willis v. Sage, 11 App. Div. 4.

An arrest of judgment, after conviction for felony, is not a bar to a second indictment. People v. Casborns, 13 Johns. 351.

A prisoner is not put in jeopardy where the evidence fails to establish the offense charged. Canter v. People, 1 Abb. Dec. 305.

Conviction for assault and battery no bar to indictment for murder, where the person assaulted subsequently dies of the blows. Burns v. People, 1 Park. 182.

Where one is convicted of murder, and the law is subsequently repealed without reservation, and a new law enacted, he cannot be tried again, nor can he be executed under a re-enactment of the old law. Hartung v. People, 26 N. Y. 167.

Habitual criminal's act valid. People v. McCarthy, 45 How. Pr. 97.

Section 7 of anti-monopoly law (Chap. 383, L. 1897) unconstitutional. Matter of Attorney-General, 21 Misc. 101.

Act allowing prisoners to testify for themselves valid. People v. Courtney, 94 N. Y. 90.

Where a prisoner testifies in his own behalf, he is subject to the same rules and tests as other witnesses. People v. Brandon, 42 N. Y. 265. By offering himself he waives the constitutional privilege. Connors v. People, 50 N. Y. 240.

Due process.—A law authorizing the commitment of a person to the State Inebriate Asylum, upon ex parte affidavits alone, is unconstitutional. Matter of James, 30 How. Pr. 446.

Statute relating to licensing of plumbers, constitutional. People ex rel. Nechamcus v. Warden, 144 N. Y. 529.

Prohibition of sale of colored vinegar valid. People v. Girard, 145 N. Y. 105.

Act prohibiting barbering on Sunday in certain cities is valid. People v. Haynor, 149 N. Y. 195.

Act giving labor union right to enjoin manufacturer, etc., of union label, valid. Perkins v. Heert, 5 App. Div. 335.

Liquor tax law, held valid. Balogh v. Lyman, 6 App. Div. 271.

Where, before the expiration of a term of imprisonment, the prisoner escapes, no new award of execution is necessary; he may be retaken and confined under the original judgment. Haggerty v. People, 53 N. Y. 478.

A forcible examination, under order of a coroner, of a female prisoner by physicians, for the purpose of obtaining evidence of her recent pregnancy, is a violation of the Constitution. People v. McCoy, 45 How. Pr. 215.

This provision has no reference to disciplinary proceedings before a medical society. Matter of Smith, 10 Wend. 449.

A law authorizing a condemnation of animals found trespassing without notice to the owner, is unconstitutional; Rockwell v. Nearing, 35 N. Y. 302; otherwise where notice is required. Cook v. Gregg, 46 N. Y. 399.

Canal commissioners are constitutionally authorized to punish witnesses for contempt. People v. Learned, 5 Hun. 626.

As to what is "due process of law," see Matter of McAdam, 27 State Rep. 353.

"Due process" does not require proceeding according to common law, nor personal service. Happy v. Mosher, 48 N. Y. 313. In taking private property for public use, notice to owners by publication is valid. Owners v. Albany, 15 Wend. 374; Matter of Union, etc., R. Co., 112 N. Y. 61.

"Due process of law," simply requires that a party shall have his day in court; the Legislature may take away a particular remedy and give a new one. People ex. rel. v. Supervisors, 70 N. Y. 228.

As to when the attachment of an indebtedness due a non-resident without notice is within the provision of due process of law, see Martin v. Cent. Vt. R. Co., 50 Hun, 347.

The principle that property shall not be taken without "due process of law," and that such due process includes notices to the owner is for the benefit of the owner and not of third persons. People v. Turner, 49 Hun, 467.

The common council of a city grants to defendant a permit to build certain frame houses within its limits. After the work was commenced the resolution granting the permit was rescinded without notice. Held, void as violative of the constitutional prohibition against taking private property without due process of law City of Buffalo v. Chadeaque, 27 State Rep. 60.

Chap. 448, Laws 1885, relating to comptroller's deeds as conclusive evidence of regularity of proceedings, is constitutional. People v. Turner, 27 State Rep. 158.

As to provisions for the discovery and delivery of the property of a decedent. Matter of Beebe, 20 Hun., 462; Matter of Curry. 25 id. 321.

Provisions for taking testimony of witnesses conditionally in criminal proceeding, valid. People v. Williams, 35 Hun, 516.

Law authorizing person not connected with judiciary to commit a witness to jail is invalid. People ex rel. MacDonald v. Leubischer, 34 App. Div. 577; appeal dismissed, 157 N. Y. 121.

TAKING PRIVATE PROPERTY.—The Legislature may prohibit a use of private property which violates the duty the owner owes to his neighbor or to the State. Prentice v. Weston, 111 N. Y. 460. This does not include taxation. People ex rel. Griffin v. Mayor of Brooklyn, 4 N. Y. 419; Brewster v. City of Syracuse, 19 id. 216. But it includes prospective profits on a State contract. Danolds v. State, 89 N. Y. 36.

It belongs to the Legislature and not to the courts to determine whether the public benefit will justify the taking of private property for public use. Beekman v. Saratoga & S. R. R. Co., 3 Pai. 45; Harris v. Thompson, 9 Barb. 350; Bloodgood v. Mohawk & Hudson R. Co., 18 Wend. 9; Buffalo & N. Y. R. R. Co. v. Brainard, 9 N. Y. 100; People v. Smith, 21 id. 595; Ex parte Townsend, 39 id. 171; Dean Street, 53 id. 60; and how much or what interest shall be taken. Brooklyn Park Comm'rs v. Armstrong, 45 N. Y. 234.

But the question whether the purpose is public or private is a judicial one, to be determined by the courts; the grant by the Legislature of the right to take is not conclusive evidence that the use is a public one; so the provisions authorizing the taking of land for a rural cemetery association by proceeding in invitum is unconstitutional. Matter of Dansville Cemetery Ass'n, 66 N. Y. 569.

The exercise of the right of eminent domain does not impair the validity of contracts. Lansing v. Smith, 4 Wend. 9.

The right may be exercised for the benefit and at the expense of a few. Owners v. Albany, 15 Wend. 374; through the instrumentality of a foreign or other corporation. Ex parte Townsend, 39 N. Y. 171; Bloomfield v. Natural Gas-light Co., 63 Barb. 437.

The national government may apply to condemn lands. Matter of U. S., 96 N. Y. 227.

Owner entitled to notice and hearing. Stuart v. Palmer 74 N. Y. 183; 30 Am. Rep. 289; but Legislature may dictate manner and procedure; Matter of Mayor, 90 N. —Compensation for taking private property; private roads; drainage of agricultural lands.—§ 7. When private property shall be taken for any public use, the compensation to be made therefor, when such compensation is not made by the State, shall be ascertained by a jury, or by not less than three commissioners appointed by a court of record, as shall be prescribed by law. Private roads may be opened in the manner to be prescribed by law; but in every case the necessity of the road and the amount of all damage to be sustained by the opening thereof shall be first determined by a jury of free-holders, and such amount, together with the expenses of the proceeding, shall be paid by the person to be benefited. General laws may be passed permitting the owners or occupants of agricultural lands to construct and maintain for the drainage thereof, necessary drains, ditches and dykes upon the lands of others, under proper restrictions and with just compensation, but no special laws shall be enacted for such purposes.

enumeration of inhabitants, voters shall be registered upon personal application only; but voters not residing in such cities or villages shall not be required to apply in person for registration at the first meeting of the officers having charge of the registry of voters.

Manner of voting.— § 5. All elections by the citizens, except for such town officers as may by law be directed to be otherwise chosen, shall be by ballot, or by such other method as may be prescribed by law, provided that secrecy in voting be preserved.

Provision of election law as to aiding illiterate voters, valid. People ex rel. Klein v. McDonald, 52 N. Y. Supp. 898.

Registration and election boards to be bi-partisan, except at town and village elections. — § 6. All laws creating, regulating or affecting boards of officers charged with the duty of registering voters, or of distributing ballots at the polls to voters, or of receiving, recording or counting votes at elections, shall secure equal representation of the two political parties which, at the general election next preceding that for which such boards or officers are to serve, cast the highest and the next highest number of votes. All such boards and officers shall be appointed or elected in such manner, and upon the nomination of such representatives of said parties respectively, as the Legislature may direct. Existing laws on this subject shall continue until the Legislature shall otherwise provide. This section shall not apply to town meetings, or to village elections.

ARTICLE III.

Legislative powers. — Section 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in the Senate and Assembly.

Each of the departments of government—legislative, judicial and executive, is restricted to the exercise of its own legitimate functions, and unless a legal and constitutional warrant can be found no one of the three should be permitted to invade the domain of the other. People ex rel. Sabold v. Webb. 23 State Rep. 325.

Legislative power is absolute and unlimited, except as restrained by the Constitution. Bank of Chenango v. Brown, 26 N. Y. 467; People v. Flagg, 46 id. 401.

Not only is the power, but the responsibility of legislation is imposed on the Legislature; they cannot submit any bill to the popular vote, except one providing for the contracting of a debt. Barto v. Himrod, 8 N. Y. 483.

But they may delegate powers to pass ordinances to municipal corporations. Tanner v. Trustees of Albion, 5 Hill, 121.

They may pass bills to take effect on the happening of a future event; Corning v. Green, 23 Barb. 33; or granting power to be exercised upon conditions; Bank of Rome v. Village of Rome, 18 N. Enumerations and reapportionments.—§ 4. An enumeration of the inhabitants of the State shall be taken under the direction of the Secretary of State, during the months of May and June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, and in the same months every tenth year thereafter; and the said districts shall be so altered by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration, that each senate district shall contain as nearly as may be an equal number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, and be in as compact form as practicable, and shall remain unaltered until the return of another enumeration, and shall at all times, consist of contiguous territory, and no county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district except to make two or more senate districts wholly in such county. No town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of senate districts; nor shall any district contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same county, than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such district. Counties, towns or blocks which, from their location may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

No county shall have four or more senators unless it shall have a full ratio for each senator. No county shall have more than one-third of all the senators; and no two counties or the territory thereof as now organized, which are adjoining counties, or which are separated only by public waters, shall have more than one-half of all the senators.

The ratio for apportioning senators shall always be obtained by dividing the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, by fifty, and the senate shall always be composed of fifty members, except that if any county having three or more senators at the time of any apportionment shall be entitled on such ratio to an additional senator or senators, such additional senator or senators shall be given to such county in addition to the fifty senators, and the whole number of senators shall be increased to that extent.

Extraordinary session called after return of enumeration is the first session after such return. People ex rel. Carter v. Rice, 47 St. Rep. 702.

Apportionment of assemblymen; creation of assembly districts. — § 5. The members of the Assembly shall be chosen by single districts and shall be apportioned by the Legislature at the first regular session after the return of every enumeration among the several counties of the state, as nearly as may be according to the number of their respective inhabitants, excluding aliens. Every county heretofore established and separately organized, except the county of Hamilton, shall always be entitled to one member of Assembly, and no county shall hereafter be erected unless its population shall entitle it to a member. The county of Hamilton shall elect with the county of Fulton, until the population of the county of Hamilton shall, according to the ratio, entitle it to a member. But the Legislature may abolish the said county of Hamilton and annex the territory thereof to some other county or counties.

The quotient obtained by dividing the whole number of inhabitants of the State, excluding aliens, by the number of members of assembly, shall be the ratio for apportionment, which shall be made as follows: One member of assembly shall be apportioned to every county, including Fulton and Hamilton as one county, containing less than the ratio and one-half over. Two members shall be apportioned to every other county. The remaining members of assembly shall be apportioned to the counties having more than two ratios according to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens. Members apportioned on remainders shall be apportioned to the counties having the highest remainders in the order thereof respectively. No county shall have more members of assembly than a county having a greater number of inhabitants, excluding aliens.

Until after the next enumeration, members of the Assembly shall be apportioned to the several counties as follows: Albany county, four members; Allegany county, one member; Broome county, two members; Cattaraugus county, two members; Cayuga county, two members; Chautauqua county, two members; Chemung county, one member; Chenango county, one member; Clinton county, one member; Columbia county, one member; Cortland county, one member; Delaware county, one member; Dutchess county, two members; Erie county, eight members; Essex county, one member; Franklin county, one member; Fulton and Hamilton counties, one member; Genesee county, one member; Greene county, one member; Herkimer county, one member; Jefferson county, two members; Kings county, twenty-one members; Lewis county, one member; Livingston county, one member; Madison county, one member; Monroe county, four members; Montgomery county, one member; New York county, thirty-five members; Niagara county, two members; Oneida county, three members; Onondaga county, four members; Ontario county, one member; Orange county, two members; Orleans county, one member; Oswego county, two members; Otsego county, one member; Putnam county, one member; Queens county, three members; Rensselaer county, three members; Richmond county, one member; Rockland county, one member; St. Lawrence county, two members; Saratoga county, one member; Schenectady county, one member; Schoharie county, one member; Schuyler county, one member Seneca county, one member; Steuben county, two members; Suffolk county, two members; Sullivan county, one member; Tioga county, one member; Tompkins county, one member; Ulster county, two members; Warren county, one member; Washington county, one member; Wayne county, one member; Westchester county, three members; Wyoming county, one member, and Yates county, one member.

In any county entitled to more than one member, the board of supervisors, and in any city embracing an entire county and having no board of supervisors, the common council, or if there be none, the body exercising the powers of a common council, shall assemble on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and at such times as the Legislature making an apportionment shall prescribe, and divide such counties into assembly districts as nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as may be, of convenient and contiguous territory in as compact form as practicable, each of which shall be wholly within a senate district formed under the same apportionment, equal to the number of members of Assembly to which such county shall be entitled, and shall cause to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State and of the clerk of such county, a description of such districts, specifying the number of each district and of the inhabitants thereof, excluding aliens, according to the last preceding enumeration; and such apportionment and districts shall remain unaltered until another enumeration shall be made, as herein provided; but said division of the city of Brooklyn and the county of Kings to be made on the second Tuesday of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, shall be made by the common council of the said city and the board of supervisors of said county assembled in joint session. In counties having more than one senate district, the same number of assembly districts shall be put in each senate district, unless the assembly districts cannot be evenly divided among the senate districts of any county, in which case one more assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the largest, or one less assembly district shall be put in the senate district in such county having the smallest number of inhabitants, excluding aliens, as the case may require. No town, and no block in a city inclosed by streets or public ways, shall be divided in the formation of assembly districts, nor shall any districts contain a greater excess in population over an adjoining district in the same senate district, than the population of a town or block therein adjoining such assembly district. Towns or blocks which, from their location, may be included in either of two districts, shall be so placed as to make said districts most nearly equal in number of inhabitants, excluding aliens; but in the division of cities under the first apportionment, regard shall be had to the number of inhabitants, excluding aliens of the election districts according to the state enumeration of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, so far as may be, instead of blocks. Nothing in this section shall prevent the division, at any time, of counties and towns, and the erection of new towns by the Legislature.

An apportionment by the Legislature, or other body, shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court, at the suit of any citizen, under such reasonable regulations as the Legislature may prescribe; and any court before which a cause may be pending involving an apportionment, shall give precedence thereto over all other causes and proceedings, and if said court be not in session it shall convene promptly for the disposition of the same.

Act annexing part of Westchester county to New York, valid. People ex rel. Henderson v. Supervisors, etc., 147 N. Y. 1.

The Legislature cannot, by altering bounds of cities and towns, alter an Assembly district except at the decennial apportionment. Kinne v. Syracuse, 3 Keyes, 110.

The provision for reorganizing Senate and Assembly districts at the next session of the Legislature after the decennial census is directory merely; an act for that purpose, passed at a subsequent session, is valid. Rumsey v. People, 19 N. Y. 41.

This provision binds the Legislature as well as boards of supervisors. Lanning v. Carpenter, 20 N. Y. 447.

In determining the question of population the Legislature are not confined to the last census, nor restrained in regard to the nature of the evidence as their basis of the action. DeCamp v. Eveland, 19 Barb. 81.

A new county may be erected for municipal and judicial purposes only, until the next apportionment, with right of suffrage to the electors meanwhile. Id.

Compensation of members.—§ 6. Each member of the Legislature shall receive for his services an annual salary of one thousand five hundred dollars. The members of either house shall also receive the sum of one dollar for every ten miles they shall travel in going to and returning from their place of meeting, once in each session, on the most usual route, Senators, when the Senate alone is convened in extraordinary session or when serving as members of the Court for the Trial of Impeachments, and such members of the Assembly, not exceeding nine in number, as shall be appointed managers of an impeachment, shall receive an additional allowance of ten dollars a day.

Civil appointments of members void. — § 7. No member of the Legislature shall receive any civil appointment within this State, or the Senate of the United States, from the Governor, the Governor and Senate, or from the Legislature, or from any city government, during the time for which he shall have been elected; and all such appointments and all votes given for any such member for any such office or appointment shall be void.

A member of Assembly may be appointed clerk of District Court. Stewart v. Mayor, 15 App. Div. 548.

Persons disqualified from being members. — § 8. No person shall be eligible to the Legislature, who at the time of his election, is, or within one hundred days previous thereto has been, a member of Congress, a civil or military officer under the United States, or an officer under any city government. And if any person shall, after his election as a member of the Legislature, be elected to Congress, or appointed to any office, civil or military, under the government of the United States, or under any city gov-

Time of elections. — § 9. The elections of senators and members of assembly, pursuant to the provisions of this Constitution, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November, unless otherwise directed by the Legislature.

Powers of such house. — § 10. A majority of each house shall constitute a quorum to do business. Each house shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members; shall choose its own officers; and the Senate shall choose a temporary president to preside in case of the absence or impeachment of the Lieutenant-Governor, or when he shall refuse to act as president, or shall act as Governor.

Journals; open sessions; adjournments. — § 11. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, except such parts as may require secrecy. The doors of each house shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days.

Members not to be questioned for speeches. — § 12. For any speech or debate in either house of the Legislature, the members shall not be questioned in any other place.

Bill may originate in either house. — § 13. Any bill may originate in either house of the Legislature and all bills passed by one house may be amended by the other.

Enacting clause of bills. — § 14. The enacting clause of all bills shall be "The People of the State of New York, represented in the Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows," and no law shall be enacted except by bill.

Manner of passing bills. — § 15. No bill shall be passed or become a law unless it shall have been printed and upon the desks of the members, in its final form, at least three calendar legislative days prior to its final passage, unless the Governor, or the acting Governor, shall have certified to the necessity of its immediate passage, under his hand and the seal of the State; nor shall any bill be passed or become a law, except by the assent of the majority of the members elected to each branch of the Legislature; and upon the last reading of a bill, no amendment thereof shall be allowed, and the question upon its final passage shall be taken immediately thereafter, and the yeas and nays entered on the journal.

Private and local bills not to embrace more than one subject. — § 16. No private or local bill, which may be passed by the Legislature, shall embrace more than one subject, and that shall be expressed in the title.

An act containing both general and local provisions is not a local act, and the general provisions are not void because the title refers only to the local provisions; People v. McCann, 16 N. Y. 58; but the local provisions are void unless specified in the title. People v. Supervisors of Chautauqua, 43 N. Y. 10.

An expression of the general subject is sufficient. Nuendorff v. Duryea, 69 N. Y. 557.

Act incorporating a city and dividing town, constitutional. People v. Wilber, 39 St. Rep. 743. See, also, Fort v. Cummings, 90 Hun, 481.

Granting to any person, association, firm or corporation an exemption from taxation on real or personal property

Providing for building bridges, and chartering companies for such purposes, except on the Hudson river below Waterford, and on the East river, or over the waters forming a part of the boundaries of the state.

The legislature shall pass general laws providing for the cases enumerated in this section, and for all other cases which in its judgment, may be provided for by general laws. But no law shall authorize the construction or operation of a street railroad except upon the condition that the consent of the owners of one-half in value of the property bounded on, and the consent also of the local authorities having the control of, that portion of a street or highway upon which it is proposed to construct or operate such railroad be first obtained, or in case the consent of such property owners cannot be obtained, the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, in the department in which it is proposed to be constructed, may upon application, appoint three commissioners who shall determine, after a hearing of all parties interested, whether such railroad ought to be constructed or operated, and their determination, confirmed by the court, may be taken in lieu of the consent of the property owners.

See Matter of Union, etc., R. Co., 112 N. Y. 61; Matter of Met. R. Co., 111 id. 588; Matter of N. Y., etc., R. Co., 107 id. 42.

This provision as to highways applies only to public highways. People ex rel. Com'rs v. Banks, 67 N. Y. 568.

These provisions for consent of property owners do not apply to the city of New York. In re Gilbert El. R. Co., 70 N. Y. 361.

The Legislature may enact that a second railway shall not be constructed in a street until the consent of the first is obtained. In re Thirty-fourth Street R. Co., 102 N. Y. 343.

Act legalizing proceedings of town officer for building a bridge is void. Wrought Iron Bridge Co. v. Town of Attica, 119 N. Y. 204.

As to application to Appellate Division. See Matter of Board of R. T. Com'rs, 147 N. Y. 260.

Private claims not to be audited by Legislature.—§ 19. The Legislature shall neither audit nor allow any private claim or account against the State, but may appropriate money to pay such claims as shall have been audited and allowed according to law.

See Code v. State, 102 N. Y. 48; O'Hara v. State, 112 id. 146.

Claim of county to be reimbursed for expenses of trials of convicts for crimes committed in prison is not within the prohibition. Board of Supervisors v. State, 153 N. Y. 279.

Two-thirds bills. — § 20. The assent of two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the legislature shall be requisite to every bill appropriating the public moneys or property for local or private purposes.

Such bills must show on their face the requisite vote. People v. Comrs., 54 N. Y. 276; 13 Am. Rep. 581.

This applies to appropriations for purposes either private or local. People v. Allen, 42 N. Y. 378.

The acts concerning the relinquishment of escheats did not require a two-thirds vote; Englishbee v. Helmuth, 3 N. Y. 294; nor the act substituting commutation for military service; People ex rel. Scott v. Supervisors, 8 id. 317; the term "public moneys" means moneys belonging to the State; Matter of Tax Payers of Kingston, 40 How. Pr. 444; the appropriation of money to improve a particular river is local, within this provision. People ex rel. Adart v. Allen, 42 N. Y. 378.

An act vesting in a town for road purposes the title of the State to lands, is within this provision. People ex rel. Purdy v. Commrs. of Highways of Marlborough, 54 N. Y. 276; 13 Am. Rep. 581.

An act declaring the compensation of a public officer to be a public charge, and directing a board of supervisors to allow it, is not within this provision. Morris v. People, 3 Den. 381.

Does not apply to an act directing that commissions formerly allowed to county treasurers go to the counties. Supervisors of Seneca County v. Allen, 99 N. Y. 532.

Liquor tax law of 1896 not a two-thirds bill. People ex rel. Ensfeld v. Murray, 149 N. Y. 367.

Appropriation bills. — § 21. No money shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this State, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within two years next after the passage of such appropriation act; and every such law making a new appropriation or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated, and the object to which it is to be applied; and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such sum.

Restrictions as to provisions in the appropriation or supply bills. — § 22. No provision or enactment shall be embraced in the annual appropriation or supply bill, unless it relates specifically to some particular appropriation in the bill; and any such provision or enactment shall be limited in its operation to such appropriation.

Certain sections not to apply to commission bills. — § 23. Sections seventeen and eighteen of this article shall not apply to any bill, or the amendments to any bill, which shall be reported to the legislature by commissioners who have been appointed pursuant to law to revise the statutes.

The Legislature are the exclusive judges whether a bill was so reported. People v. Petrea, 92 N. Y. 128.

Tax bills to state tax distinctly. — § 24. Every law which imposes, continues or revives a tax shall distinctly state the tax and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient to refer to any other law to fix such tax or object.

See Clark v. Sheldon, 106 N. Y. 104.

This section applies only to a general tax upon all property of the State; it has no application to a local tax upon a particular section. Jones v. Chamberlin, 109 N. Y. 100.

A tax, such as is provided by act of 1885, chap. 483 (collateral inheritance, etc.), may be constitutionally imposed. Matter of McPherson, 104 N. Y. 306; 58 Am. Rep. 306.

A tax law must strictly conform to the constitutional requirements. People v. Supervisors of Kings, 52 N. Y. 556.

A tax law for a local purpose must state the tax. Hanlon v. Supervisors of Westchester, 57 Barb. 383.

This provision is satisfied by a provision in the tax bill that the money is to be paid into the treasury to the credit of the general fund. People ex rel. Burrows v. Supervisors of Orange, 17 N. Y. 235.

See People ex rel. Hopkins v. Board of Supervisors of Kings Co., 52 N. Y. 556.

It is sufficient if the maximum limit is stated. Hurlburt v. Banks, 1 Abb. N. C. 157.

This does not apply to acts merely modifying process of collection of a tax already imposed. People v. Supervisors, 36 Hun, 491.

Nor to acts enlarging the bounds of towns and villages. Pumpelly v. Oswego, 45 How. Pr. 219. See People v. Nat. Fire Ins. Co., 27 Hun, 188; People v. Home Ins. Co., 92 N. Y. 328; People v. N. Y. Floating Dry Dock Co., 11 Abb. N. C. 40.

When ayes and nays necessary; three-fifths to constitute quorum.—§ 25. On the final passage, in either house of the Legislature, of any act which imposes, continues or revives a tax, or creates a debt or charge, or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, discharges or commutes any claim or demand of the State, the question shall be taken by yeas and nays, which shall be duly entered upon the journals, and three-fifths of all the members elected to either house shall, in all such cases, be necessary to constitute a quorum therein.

A commutation by military service is not a tax within the meaning of this provision; this section refers to a general tax. People ex rel. Scott v. Supervisors of Chenango, 8 N. Y. 317.

Nor is the act compensating parties whose property may have been destroyed by mobs or riots. Darlington v. Mayor of N. Y. 31 N. Y. 164, 165.

Boards of supervisors.—§ 26. There shall be in each county, except in a county wholly included in a city, a board of supervisors, to be composed of such members and elected in such manner and for such period as is or may be provided by law. In a city which includes an entire county, or two or more entire counties, the powers and duties of a board of supervisors may be devolved upon the municipal assembly, common council, board of aldermen or other legislative body of the city.

Provision that supervisors of town shall constitute board of supervisors of new county, valid. Matter of Noble, 34 App. Div. 557.

Local legislative powers.—§ 27. The Legislature shall, by general laws, confer upon the boards of supervisors of the several counties of the State such further powers of local legislation and administration as the Legislature may, from time to time, deem expedient.

See People ex rel. Morrill v. Supervisors, 112 N. Y. 586.

The act to vest in the board of supervisors certain legislative powers, for the protection of shell fish, is constitutional. Smith v. Levinus, 8 N. Y. 472.

A law providing that the compensation of certain county treasurers shall be fixed by the supervisors is valid. Supervisors of Seneca v. Allen, 99 N. Y. 532.

Legislature may delegate certain powers to cemetery associations. Johnstown Cemetery Association v. Parker, 28 Misc. 280.

Extra compensation prohibited.—§ 28. The Legislature shall not, nor shall the common council of any city, nor any board of supervisors, grant any extra compensation to any public officer, servant, agent or contractor.

Does not preclude furnishing an officer, clerk or assistant. People v. Gallup, 12 Abb. N. C. 65; 65 How. Pr. 108.

Attorney-General may not receive fees when retained in proceedings to vacate a charter. People v. Mutual Union Teleg. Co., 2 Civ. Pro. 295.

Salary for services yet to be performed may be increased. Truesdale v. City of Rochester, 33 Hun, 574; see Cole v. State, 102 N. Y. 48.

Prison labor; contract system abolished.— § 29. The Legislature shall, by law, provide for the occupation and employment of prisoners sentenced to the several State prisons, penitentiaries, jails and reformatories in the State; and on and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty years, and who shall have been five years next preceding his election a resident of this State.

Election of Governor and Lieutenant-Governor.—§ 3. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected at the times and places of choosing members of the Assembly. The persons respectively having the highest number of votes for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be elected; but in case two or more shall have an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor, or for Lieutenant-Governor, the two houses of the Legislature at its next annual session shall forthwith, by joint ballot, choose one of the said persons so having an equal and the highest number of votes for Governor or Lieutenant-Governor.

Duties and powers of Governor; compensation.—§ 4. The Governor shall be Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces of the State. He shall have power to convene the Legislature, or the Senate only, on extraordinary occasions. At extraordinary sessions no subject shall be acted upon, except such as the Governor may recommend for consideration. He shall communicate by message to the Legislature at every session the condition of the State, and recommend such matters to it as he shall judge expedient. He shall transact all necessary business with the officers of government, civil and military. He shall expedite all such measures as may be resolved upon by the Legislature, and shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed. He shall receive for his services an annual salary of ten thousand dollars and there shall be provided for his use a suitable and furnished executive residence.

As commander-in-chief the Governor has power to consolidate companies and regiments. People v. Ewen, 17 How. Pr. 375.

No action will lie to recover any part of money appropriated by law to the Governor for incidental expenses; the propriety of the expenditure is not a subject of judicial cognizance. People v. Lewis, 7 Johns. 73.

Reprieves, commutations, and pardons to be granted by Governor.—§ 5. The Governor shall have the power to grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment, upon such conditions and with such restrictions and limitations, as he may think proper, subject to such regulations as may be provided by law relative to the manner of applying for pardons. Upon conviction for treason, he shall have power to suspend the execution of the sentence, until the case shall be reported to the Legislature at its next meeting, when the Legislature shall either pardon, or commute the sentence, direct the execution of the sentence, or grant a further reprieve. He shall annually communicate to the Legislature each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime of which he was convicted, the sentence and its date, and the date of the commutation, pardon or reprieve.

A provision in a pardon that it shall not remove disabilities, is void. People v. Pease, 3 Johns. Cas. 333.

Pardon of one imprisoned for life does not restore rights of previous marriage or of guardianship. 2 R. S. 139, § 7.

The court cannot go behind a pardon although fraudulently obtained. In re Edymoin, 8 How. Pr. 478; a pardon will not be disregarded, although the statutory notice of application for it was not given. Id.

In case of breach of a conditional pardon, the recipient may be remanded, and the original sentence executed. People v. Potter, 1 Park. 47.

The power to grant conditional pardons does not authorize immoral, impossible or illegal conditions. Id.

Bills to be presented to Governor; approval; passage of bill by Legislature if not approved.—§ 9. Every bill which shall have passed the Senate and Assembly shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the Governor; if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections to the house in which it shall have originated, which shall enter the objections at large on the journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of the members elected to that house, it shall become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. In all such cases the votes in both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Legislature shall, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not become a law without the approval of the Governor. No bill shall become a law after the final adjournment of the Legislature, unless approved by the Governor within thirty days after such adjournment. If any bill presented to the Governor contain several items of appropriation of money, he may object to one or more of such items while approving of the other portion of the bill. In such case he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a statement of the items to which he objects; and the appropriation so objected to shall not take effect. If the Legislature be in session, he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately reconsidered. If on reconsideration one or more of such items be approved by two-thirds of the members elected to each house, the same shall be part of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. All the provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the Governor, shall apply in cases in which he shall withhold his approval from any item or items contained in a bill appropriating money.

Clause that act becomes a law if not returned signed within ten days, unless return is prevented by adjournment, means adjournment at close of session. 49 Hun, 550.

The power of the Governor to approve and sign a bill presented to him within ten days previous to the adjournment does not cease with the adjournment. People v. Bowen, 21 N. Y. 517.

Surveyor; subject to the control of the Legislature, he shall make the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. He may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require; but in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. The Superintendent of Public Works shall appoint not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties shall be prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, and who shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law. They shall hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendent shall be filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed, by the Superintendent of Public Works; but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor, in writing, the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except collectors of tolls and those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, shall be appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and be subject to suspension or removal by him. The Superintendent of Public Works shall perform all the duties of the former Canal Commissioners and Board

Supreme Court; how constituted; judicial districts.—Section 1. The Supreme Court is continued with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as now is or may be prescribed by law not inconsistent with this article. The existing judicial districts of the State are continued until changed as hereinafter provided. The Supreme Court shall consist of the justices now in office, and of the Judges transferred thereto by the fifth section of this article, all of whom shall continue to be Justices of the Supreme Court during their respective terms, and of twelve additional Justices who shall reside in and be chosen by the electors of, the several existing judicial districts, three in the first district, three in the second, and one in each of the other districts; and of their successors. The successors of said justices shall be chosen by the electors of their respective judicial districts. The Legislature may alter the judicial districts once after every enumeration under the Constitution, of the inhabitants of the State, and thereupon reapportion the Justices to be thereafter elected in the districts so altered.

Judicial departments; appellate division, how constituted; Governor to designate justices; reporter; time and place of holding courts.—§ 2. The Legislature shall divide the State into four judicial departments. The first department shall consist of the county of New York; the others shall be bounded by county lines, and be compact and equal in population as nearly as may be. Once every ten years the Legislature may alter the judicial departments, but without increasing the number thereof. There shall be an appellate division of the Supreme Court, consisting of seven justices in the first department and of five justices in each of the other departments. In each department four shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five justices shall sit in any case. From all the justices elected to the Supreme court the Governor shall designate those who shall constitute the appellate division in each department; and he shall designate the presiding justice thereof, who shall act as such during his term of office, and shall be a resident of the department. The other justices shall be designated for terms of five years or the unexpired portions of their respective terms of office, if less than five years. From time to time as the terms of such designations expire, or vacancies occur, he shall make new designations. A majority of the justices so designated to sit in the appellate division, in each department shall be residents of the department. He may also make temporary designations in case of the absence or inability to act of any justice in the appellate division, or in case the presiding justice of any appellate division shall certify to him that one or more additional justices are needed for the speedy disposition of the business before it. Whenever the appellate division in any department shall be unable to dispose of its business within a reasonable time, a majority of the presiding justices of the several departments at a meeting called by the presiding justice of the department in arrears may transfer any pending appeals from such department to any other department for hearing and determination. No justice of the appellate division shall exercise any of the powers of a justice of the Supreme Court other than those of a justice out of court, and those pertaining to the appellate division or to the hearing and decision of motions submitted by consent of counsel. From and after the last day of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, the appellate division shall have the jurisdiction now exercised by the Supreme Court at its general terms and by the general terms of the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of New York, the Superior Court of the city of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo and the city of Brooklyn, and such additional jurisdiction as may be conferred by the Legislature. It shall have power to appoint and remove a reporter. The justices of the appellate division in each department shall have power to fix the times and places for holding special and trial terms therein, and to assign the justices in the departments to hold such terms; or to make rules thereof.

Judge or justice not to sit in review; testimony in equity cases.—§ 3. No Judge or Justice shall sit in the Appellate Division or in the Court of Appeals in review of a decision made by him or by any court of which he was at the time a sitting member. The testimony in equity cases shall be taken in like manner as in cases at law; and, except as herein otherwise provided, the Legislature shall have the same power to alter and regulate the jurisdiction and proceedings in law and in equity that it has heretofore exercised.

Terms of office; vacancies, how filled.—§ 4. The official terms of the Justices of the Supreme Court, shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term in the office of Justice of the Supreme Court the same shall be filled for a full term, at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and, until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session the Governor, may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

of New York, the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo, and the City Court of Brooklyn, are abolished from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and thereupon the seals, records, papers and documents of or belonging to such courts, shall be deposited in the offices of the clerks of the several counties in which said courts now exist; and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts shall be transferred to the Supreme Court for hearing and determination. The judges of said courts in office on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, shall, for the remainder of the terms for which they were elected or appointed, be Justices of the Supreme Court; but they shall sit only in the counties in which they were elected or appointed. Their salaries shall be paid by the said counties respectively, and shall be the same as the salaries of the other Justices of the Supreme Court residing in the same counties. Their successors shall be elected as Justices of the Supreme Court by the electors of the judicial districts in which they respectively reside.

The jurisdiction now exercised by the several courts hereby abolished, shall be vested in the Supreme Court. Appeals from inferior and local courts now heard in the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of New York and the Superior Court of Buffalo, shall be heard in the Supreme Court in such manner and by such Justice or Justices as the Appellate Division in the respective departments which include New York and Buffalo shall direct, unless otherwise provided by the Legislature.

Circuit Courts and Courts of Oyer and Terminer abolished.—§ 6. Circuit Courts and Courts of Oyer and Terminer are abolished from and after the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five. All their jurisdiction shall thereupon be vested in the Supreme Court, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such courts shall be transferred to the Supreme Court for hearing and determination. Any Justice of the Supreme Court, except as otherwise provided in this article, may hold court in any county.

No order necessary to transfer cases from Oyer and Terminer to Supreme Court. People v. Koch, 150 N. Y. 291.

Court of Appeals.—§ 7. The Court of Appeals is continued. It shall consist of the chief judge and associate judges now in office, who shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms, and their successors, who shall be chosen by the electors of the State. The official terms of the chief judge and associate judges shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. Five members of the court shall form a quorum, and the concurrence of four shall be necessary to a decision. The court shall have power to appoint and to remove its reporter, clerk and attendants. Whenever and as often as a majority of the judges of the Court of Appeals shall certify to the Governor that said court is unable, by reason of the accumulation of causes pending therein, to hear and dispose of the same with reasonable speed, the Governor shall designate not more than four justices of the Supreme Court to serve as associate judges of Court of Appeals. The justices so designated shall be relieved from their duties as justices of the Supreme Court and shall serve as associate judges of the Court of Appeals until the causes undisposed of in said court are reduced to two hundred, when they shall return to the Supreme Court. The Governor may designate justices of the Supreme Court to fill vacancies. No justice shall serve as associate judge of the Court of Appeals except while holding the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, and no more than seven judges shall sit in any case.

Vacancy in Court of Appeals, how filled.—§ 8. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term, in the office of Chief or Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, the same shall be filled, for a full term, at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session or if not in session the Governor, may fill such vacancy by appointment. If any such appointment of Chief Judge shall be made from among the Associate Judges, a temporary appointment of Associate Judge shall be made in like manner; but in such case the person appointed Chief Judge shall not be deemed to vacate his office of Associate Judge any longer than until the expiration of his appointment as Chief Judge. The powers and jurisdiction of the court shall not be suspended for want of appointment or election, when the number of Judges is sufficient to constitute a quorum. All appointments under this section shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

Jurisdiction of Court of Appeals.—§ 9. After the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals, except where the judgment is of death, shall be limited to the review of questions of law. No unanimous decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Except where the judgment is of death, appeals may be taken, as a right, to said court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, finally determining actions or special proceedings, and from orders granting new trials on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them. The Appellate Division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

The Legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals and the right of appeal thereto, but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to orders made or judgments rendered by any General Term before the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, but appeals therefrom may be taken under existing provisions of law.

Removal of judges.—§ 11. Judges of the Court of Appeals and Justices of the Supreme Court may be removed by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concur therein. All other judicial officers, except justices of the peace and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, may be removed by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Governor, if two-thirds of all the members elected to the Senate concur therein. But no officer shall be removed by virtue of this section except for cause, which shall be entered on the journals, nor unless he shall have been served with a statement of the cause alleged, and shall have had an opportunity to be heard. Trial of impeachments.—§ 13.—The Assembly shall have the power of impeachment, by a vote of a majority of all the members elected. The court for the trial of impeachments shall be composed of the President of the Senate, the Senators, or the major part of them, and the Judges of the Court of Appeals, or the major part of them. On the trial of an impeachment against the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall not act as a member of the court. No judicial officer shall exercise his office, after articles of impeachment against him shall have been preferred to the Senate until he shall have been acquitted. Before the trial of an impeachment the members of the court shall take an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to try the impeachment according to the evidence, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, or removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under this State; but the party impeached shall be liable to indictment and punishment according to law.

County Courts.—§ 14. The existing County Courts are continued, and the Judges thereof now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms. In the county of Kings there shall be two County Judges and the additional County Judge shall be chosen at the next general election held after the adoption of this article. The successors of the several County Judges shall be chosen by the electors of the counties for the term of six years. County Courts shall have the powers and jurisdiction they now possess, and also original jurisdiction in actions for the recovery of money only, where the defendants reside in the county, and in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum not exceeding two thousand dollars. The Legislature may hereafter enlarge or restrict the jurisdiction of the County Courts, provided, however that their jurisdiction shall not be so extended as to authorize an action therein for the recovery of money only, in which the sum demanded exceeds two thousand dollars, or in which any person not a resident of the county is a defendant.

Courts of Sessions, except in the county of New York, are abolished from and after the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five. All the jurisdiction of the Court of Sessions in each county, except the county of New York, shall thereupon be vested in the County Court thereof, and all actions and proceedings then pending in such Courts of Sessions shall be transferred to said County Courts for hearing and determination. Every County Judge shall perform such duties as may be required by law. His salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. A County Judge of any county may hold County Courts in any other county when requested by the judge of such other county.

teen years. Surrogates and Surrogates' Courts shall have the jurisdiction and powers which the Surrogates and existing Surrogates' Courts now possess, until otherwise provided by the Legislature. The County Judge shall be Surrogate of his own county, except where a separate Surrogate has been or shall be elected. In counties having a population exceeding forty thousand, wherein there is no separate Surrogate, the Legislature may provide for the election of a separate officer to be Surrogate, whose term of office shall be six years. When the Surrogate shall be elected as a separate officer his salary shall be established by law, payable out of the county treasury. No County Judge or Surrogate shall hold office longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. Vacancies occurring in the office of County Judge or Surrogate shall be filled in the same manner as like vacancies occurring in the Supreme Court. The compensation of any County Judge or Surrogate shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office. For the relief of Surrogates' Courts the Legislature may confer upon the Supreme Court in any county having a population exceeding four hundred thousand, the powers and jurisdiction of Surrogates, with authority to try issues of fact by jury in probate cases.

Local judicial officers.—§ 16. The Legislature may, on application of the board of supervisors, provide for the election of local officers, not to exceed two in any county, to discharge the duties of County Judge and of Surrogate, in cases of their inability or of a

Justices of the peace; district court justices.—§ 17. The electors of the several towns shall, at their annual town meetings, or at such other time and in such manner as the Legislature may direct, elect Justices of the Peace, whose term of office shall be four years. In case of an election to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a full term, they shall hold for the residue of the unexpired term. Their number and classification may be regulated by law. Justices of the Peace and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, and their clerks may be removed for cause, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard by such courts as are or may be prescribed by law. Justices of the Peace and District Court Justices may be elected in the different cities of this State in such manner, and with such powers, and for such terms, respectively, as are or shall be prescribed by law; all other judicial officers in cities, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for in this article, shall be chosen by the electors of such cities, or appointed by some local authorities thereof

State debts to repel invasions.—§ 3. In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the State may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or defend the State in war; but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, or to repay such debts, and to no other purpose whatever.

Limitation of legislative power to create debts.—§ 4. Except the debts specified in sections two and three of this article, no debts shall be hereafter contracted by or on behalf of this State, unless such debt shall be authorized by a law, for some single work or object, to be distinctly specified therein; and such law shall impose and provide for the collection of a direct annual tax to pay, and sufficient to pay, the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within eighteen years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall, at a general election, have been submitted to the people, and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. On the final passage of such bill in either house of the Legislature, the question shall be taken by ayes and noes, to be duly entered on the journals thereof, and shall be: "Shall this bill pass, and ought the same to receive the sanction of the people?"

The Legislature may at any time, after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same; and may at any time, by law, forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law; but the tax imposed by such act, in proportion to the debt and liability which may have been contracted, in pursuance of such law, shall remain in force and be irrepealable, and be annually collected, until the proceeds thereof shall have made the provision hereinbefore specified to pay and discharge the interest and principal of such debt and liability. The money arising from any loan or stock creating such debt or liability shall be applied to the work or object specified in the act authorizing such debt or liability, or for the repayment of such debt or liability, and for no other purpose whatever. No such law shall be submitted to be voted on, within three months after its passage, or at any general election when any other law, or any bill, or any amendment to the constitution, shall be submitted to be voted for or against.

Sinking fund, how kept and invested.—§ 5. The sinking funds provided for the payment of interest and the extinguishment of the principal of the debts of the State shall be separately kept and safely invested, and neither of them shall be appropriated or used in any manner other than for the specific purpose for which it shall have been provided.

Claims barred by statute of limitations.—§ 6. Neither the Legislature, canal board, nor any person or persons acting in behalf of the State, shall audit, allow, or pay any claim which, as between citizens of the State, would be barred by lapse of time. This provision shall not be construed to repeal any statute fixing the time within which claims shall be presented or allowed, nor shall it extend to any claims duly presented within the time allowed by law, and prosecuted with due diligence from the time of such presentment. But if the claimant shall be under legal disability, the claim may be presented within two years after such disability is removed.

Legislature cannot confer a power on board to allow claim barred by Statute of Limitations. Gates v. State, 128 N. Y. 221.

It may, however, enlarge time when claim may be filed. Gates v. State, 128 N. Y. 221. See, also, Parmenter v. State, 135 id. 154.

Limitation does not begin to run until a tribunal has been constituted to hear the claim. Board of Supervisors v. State, 153 N. Y. 275.

Forest preserve.—§ 7. The lands of the State, now owned or hereafter acquired, constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. They shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, or be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed.

Land cannot be taken for forest preserve subject to right of railroad to operate road. Adirondack R. Co. v. Indian R. Co., 27 App. Div. 326.

Canals, not to be sold; not applied to certain canals; disposition of funds.—§ 8. The Legislature shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, the Champlain canal, the Cayuga and Seneca canal, or the Black River canal; but they shall remain the property of the State and under its management forever. The prohibition of lease, sale or other disposition herein contained, shall not apply to the canal known as the Main and Hamburg street canal, situated in the city of Buffalo, and which extends easterly from the westerly line of Main street to the westerly line of Hamburg street. All funds that may be derived from any lease, sale or other disposition of any canal shall be applied to the improvement, superintendence or repair of the remaining portions of the canals.

Act providing for the use of waters of Skaneateles lake to supply Syracuse with water, etc., valid. Matter of Comstock, 26 State Rep. 617.

No prescriptive right to use the waters of the canals can be acquired by any citizen, under this section. Burbank v. Fay, 5 Lans. 397.

This does not apply to an abandoned canal. People v. Stephens, 13 Hun, 17. As to what is not within the prohibition, see Sweet v. Syracuse, 129 N. Y. 316, and Walter v. State, 144 id. 599.

No tolls to be imposed; contracts for work and materials; no extra compensation.—§ 9. No tolls shall hereafter be imposed on persons or property transported on the canals, but all boats navigating the canals, and the owners and masters thereof, shall be subject to such laws and regulations as have been or may hereafter be enacted concerning the navigation of the canals. The Legislature shall annually, by equitable taxes, make provision for the expenses of the superintendence and repairs of the canals. All contracts for work or materials on any canal shall be made with the persons who shall offer to do or provide the same at the lowest price, with adequate security for their performance. No extra compensation shall be made to any contractor; but, if, from any unforeseen cause, the terms of any contract shall prove to be unjust and oppressive, the canal board may, upon the application of the contractor, cancel such contract.

Canal improvement, and cost thereof.—§ 10. The canals may be improved in such manner as the Legislature shall provide by law. A debt may be authorized for that purpose in the mode prescribed by section four of this article, or the cost of such improvement may be defrayed by the appropriation of funds from the State treasury, or by equitable annual tax.

ARTICLE VIII.

Corporations, formation of.—Section 1. Corporations may be formed under general laws; but shall not be created by special act, except for municipal purposes, and in cases where, in the judgment of the Legislature, the objects of the corporation cannot be attained under general laws. All general laws and special acts passed pursuant to this section may be altered from time to time or repealed.

See People v. O'Brien, 111 N. Y. 2.

An act requiring a railroad corporation organized under the general railroad act to pay a tax upon gross receipts instead of a license fee previously exacted may be deemed an alteration and amendment of the charter and so within the power reserved to the Legislature by the above section. Mayor v. Twenty-third St. R. Co., 113 N. Y. 311.

This provision is permissive, not mandatory. Matter of Tax Payers of Kingston, 40 How. Pr. 444. This section abolishes the old and provides a new system; hence laws passed since 1846 are exclusive of those of prior date. Rochester v. Barnes, 26 Barb. 657.

An act for the reorganizing an old corporation is not within this provision; Moshier v. Hilton, 15 Barb. 657; nor is an act remedying a technical defect in the organization; Syracuse City Bank v. Davis, 16 Barb. 188; nor an act regulating an existing corporation; Atty.-General v. No. Am. Life Ins. Co., 82 N. Y. 172.

A special act for incorporation is not unconstitutional by reason of the existence of a general law; the necessity of the act is in the legislative discretion. People v. Bowen, 21 N. Y. 517.

The Legislature may impose such restrictions and conditions as the public good requires; thus, in case of a railroad company, the manner of building bridges, speed of trains, rates of fares, etc., although a charter has been granted without reserving power to amend. People ex rel. v. Boston, etc., R. R. Co., 70 N. Y. 569.

Act allowing village to construct water works without acquiring system of existing company, valid. Warsaw W. W. v Warsaw, 16 App. Div. 505.

Dues of corporations.—§ 2. Dues from corporations shall be secured by such individual liability of the corporators and other means as may be prescribed by law.

Corporation, definition of term.—§ 3. The term corporations as used in this article shall be construed to include all associations and joint-stock companies having any of the powers or privileges of corporations not possessed by individuals or partnerships. And all corporations shall have the right to sue and shall be subject to be sued in all courts in like cases as natural persons.

Summary proceedings to enforce individual liability are valid. Empire City Bank, 18 N. Y. 190.

A provision in a railway charter that the Supreme Court alone shall issue injunctions against it, is invalid. Story v. N. Y. El. R. Co., 3 Abb. N. C. 478. See Van Vranken v. City of Schenectady, 1 Hun, 516.

Savings bank charters; restrictions upon trusts; special charters not to be granted.—§ 4. The Legislature shall, by general law, conform all charters of savings banks, or institutions for savings, to a uniformity of powers, rights and liabilities, and all charters hereafter granted for such corporations shall be made to conform to such general law, and to such amendments as may be made thereto. And no such corporation shall have any capital stock, nor shall the trustees thereof, or any of them, have any interest whatever, direct or indirect, in the profits of such corporation; and no director or trustee of any such bank or institution shall be interested in any loan or use of any money or property of such bank or institution for savings. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any act granting any special charter for banking purposes; but corporations or associations may be formed for such purposes under general laws.

The United States Trust Company is not within this prohibition. U. S. Trust Company of N. Y. v. Brady, 20 Barb. 119.
The People's Safe Deposit Company is legally authorized to issue certificates for deposits of money. Pardee v. Fish, 60 N. Y. 394.

Specie payment.—§ 5. The Legislature shall have no power to pass any law sanctioning in any manner, directly or indirectly, the suspension of specie payments, by any person, association or corporation, issuing bank notes of any description.

Registry of bills or notes.—§ 6. The Legislature shall provide by law for the registry of all bills or notes issued or put in circulation as money, and shall require ample security for the redemption of the same in specie.

Liability of stockholders of banks.—§ 7. The stockholders of every corporation and joint-stock association for banking purposes, shall be individually responsible to the amount of their respective share or shares of stock in any such corporation or association, for all its debts and liabilities of every kind.

Section 52 of Banking Law constitutional. Hirshfeld v. Bopp, 14 N. Y. 84. Act limiting to receiver of banks the right to enforce liability of stockholders is valid. Persons v. Gardner, 42 App. Div. 49

This requires in addition to the loss of the amount of capital stock paid in, the contribution of an amount equal to the amount of the respective shares of stock. Empire City Bank, 18 N. Y. 199.

This provision applies to banks chartered before the year 1846. Matter of Reciprocity Bank, 17 How. Pr. 323.

Billholders of insolvent bank, preferred creditors.—§ 8. In case of the insolvency of any bank or banking association, the billholders thereof shall be entitled to preference in payment, over all other creditors of such bank or association.

Credit or money of the State not to be given.—§ 9. Neither the credit nor the money of the State shall be given or loaned to or in aid of any association, corporation or private undertaking. This section, shall not, however, prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper. Nor shall it apply to any fund or property now held, or which may hereafter be held, by the State for educational purposes.

Not applicable to power of supervisors of New York city to levy tax. Shepherd's Fold v. Mayor, 96 N. Y. 137.

Societies for the prevention of cruelty to children not within prohibition. People ex rel. Board of Charities v. Society, etc., 42 App. Div. 83. See, also, People ex rel. N. Y. Ins. for Blind v. Fitch, 154 N. Y. 14.

Counties, cities and towns not to give or loan money or credit; limitation of indebtedness.—§ 10. No county, city, town or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of stock in, or bonds of, any association or corporation; nor shall any such county, city, town or village be allowed to incur any indebtedness except for county, city, town or village purposes. This section shall not prevent such county, city, town or village fro making such provision for the aid or support its poor as may be authorized by law. No count or city shall be allowed to become indebted f any purpose or in any manner to an amount whic including existing indebtedness, shall exceed te per centum of the assessed valuation of the real estat of such county or city subject to taxation, as appeared by the assessment-rolls of said county city on the last assessment for state or county taxe prior to the incurring of such indebtedness; and a indebtedness in excess of such limitation, except suc as may now exist, shall be absolutely void, except a herein otherwise provided. No county or city whose present indebtedness exceeds ten per centu of the assessed valuation of its real estate subje to taxation, shall be allowed to become indebted any further amount until such indebtedness sha be reduced within such limit. This section shall n be construed to prevent the issuing of certificates indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in anticipati of the collection of taxes for amounts actually co tained, or to be contained in the taxes for the year wh such certificates or revenue bonds are issued a payable out of such taxes. Nor shall this secti be construed to prevent the issue of bonds to p vide for the supply of water; but the term of bonds issued to provide the supply of water sh not exceed twenty years and a sinking fund shall created on the issuing of the said bonds for their demption, by raising annually a sum which will p duce an amount equal to the sum of the principal nterest of said bonds at their maturity. All certifi-ates of indebtedness or revenue bonds issued in nticipation of the collection of taxes, which are ot retired within five years after their date of issue, nd bonds issued to provide for the supply of water, nd any debt hereafter incurred by any portion or part f a city, if there shall be any such debt, shall be ncluded in ascertaining the power of the city to ecome otherwise indebted. Whenever the bounda-ies of any city are the same as those of a county, or hen any city shall include within its boundaries more han one county, the power of any county wholly ncluded within such city to become indebted shall ease, but the debt of the county, heretofore exist-ng shall not, for the purposes of this section, be reckoned s a part of the city debt. The amount hereafter o be raised by tax for county or city purposes, n any county containing a city of over one hun-red thousand inhabitants, or any such city of this tate, in addition to providing for the principal nd interest of existing debt, shall not in the aggre-ate exceed in any one year two per centum of the as-essed valuation of the real and personal estate of such ounty or city, to be ascertained as prescribed in this ection in respect to county or city debt.

The Legislature may authorize a municipal corporation to sub-cribe for the stock of a railroad, which, by terminating within the unicipal limits, is calculated to benefit the inhabitants. Bank of ome v. Rome, 18 N. Y. 38; People ex rel. Albany, etc., R. R. Co. . Mitchell, 35 id. 551.

The Legislature cannot compel a town to become a stockholder in railroad company without its consent. People ex rel. Dunkirk, V. & P. R. R. Co. v. Batchellor, 53 N. Y. 128.

The Legislature may compel a town to pay bonds issued for a eal improvement under an unconstitutional statute. Knapp v. ewtown, 1 Hun, 268.

They cannot authorize a municipal corporation to issue its obligations for the purpose of raising money to pay a subscription of the corporation to the capital stock of a private corporation, and provide for the payment of such obligations by taxation. Weisener v. Village of Douglas, 64 N. Y. 91.

The method of obtaining the assent of a town to subscribe and issue bonds is in the legislative discretion; the Legislature may authorize the assent to be given by an officer of the town. Even where they had previously clothed a majority of taxpayers with the authority, it may also take away previous conditions or impose new ones. Town of Duanesburgh v. Jenkins, 57 N. Y. 177.

This section does not prohibit a statute authorizing two cities to construct a public bridge connecting them. People v. Kelly, 5 Abb. N. C. 383; 76 N. Y. 475.

State board of charities; State commission in lunacy; State commission of prisons. — § 11. The Legislature shall provide for a state board of charities, which shall visit and inspect all institutions, whether state, county, municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, which are of a charitable, eleemosynary correctional or reformatory character, excepting only such institutions as are hereby made subject to the visitation and inspection of either of the commissions hereinafter mentioned, but including all reformatories except those in which adult males convicted of felony shall be confined; a state commission in lunacy which shall visit and inspect all institutions, either public or private, used for the care and treatment of the insane (not including institutions for epileptics or idiots); a state commission of prisons which shall visit and inspect all institutions used for the detention of sane adults charged with or convicted of crime, or detained as witnesses or debtors.

Boards appointed by Governor.—§ 12. The members of the said board and of the said commissions shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and any member may be removed from office by the Governor for cause, an opportunity having been given him to be heard in his defense.

Existing laws to remain in force.—§ 13. Existing laws relating to institutions referred to in the foregoing sections and to their supervision and inspection, in so far as such laws are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution, shall remain in force until amended or repealed by the Legislature. The visitation and inspection herein provided for shall not be exclusive of other visitation and inspection now authorized by law.

Institutions only partly charitable are subject to visitation and inspection. People ex rel. N. Y. Inst. for Blind v. Fitch, 154 N. Y. 14.

Maintenance and support of inmates of charitable institutions.—§ 14. Nothing in this Constitution contained shall prevent the Legislature from making such provision for the education and support of the blind, the deaf and dumb, and juvenile delinquents, as to it may seem proper; or prevent any county, city, town or village from providing for the care, support, maintenance and secular education of inmates of orphan asylums, homes for dependent children or correctional institutions, whether under public or private control. Payments by counties, cities, towns and villages to charitable, eleemosynary, correctional and reformatory institutions, wholly or partly under private control, for care, support and maintenance, may be authorized, but shall not be required by the Legislature. No such payments shall be made for any inmate of such institutions who is not received and retained therein pursuant to rules established by the state board of charities. Such rules shall be subject to the control of the Legislature by general laws.

Board of education may provide for education of inmates of incorporated orphan asylums. Sargent v. Board of Education, etc., 35 Misc. 321; affirmed, Appellate Division, 4th Dept.

Commissioners continued in office.—§ 15. Commissioners of the state board of charities and commissioners of the state commission in lunacy, now holding office, shall be continued in office for the term for which they were appointed, respectively unless the Legislature shall otherwise provide. The Legislature may confer upon the commissions and upon the board mentioned in the foregoing section any additional powers that are not inconsistent with other provisions of the Constitution.

ARTICLE IX.

Common schools.—Section 1. The Legislature shall provide for the maintenance and support of a system of free common schools, wherein all the children of this State may be educated.

Section of Public Health Law providing that no child be admitted to school unless he be vaccinated, valid. Matter of Walters, 84 Hun, 457.

Law authorizing separate schools for colored children, valid. People ex rel. Cisco v. School Board, etc., 161 N. Y. 598.

Regents of the university.—§ 2. The corporation created in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, under the name of The Regents of the University of the State of New York, is hereby continued under the name of The University of the State of New York. It shall be governed and its corporate powers, which may be increased, modified or diminished by the Legislature, shall be exercised by not less than nine regents.

Common school, literature and the United States deposit funds.—§ 3. The capital of the common school fund, the capital of the literature fund, and the capital of the United States deposit fund, shall be respectively preserved inviolate. The revenue of the said common school fund shall be applied to the support of common schools; the revenue of the said literature fund shall be applied to the support of academies; and the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars of the revenues of the United States deposit fund shall each year be appropriated to and made part of the capital of the said common school fund.

A statute authorizing an orphan asylum to share in the distribution of the common school revenues is unconstitutional; People v. Board of Ed. of Brooklyn, 13 Barb. 400; so of a normal school; Gordon v. Cornes, 47 N. Y. 608; so of an astronomical observatory; People v. Allen, 42 id. 404.

No aid in denominational schools.—§ 4. Neither the State nor any subdivision thereof, shall use its property or credit or any public money, or authorize or permit either to be used, directly or indirectly, in aid or maintenance, other than for examination or inspection, of any school or institution of learning wholly or in part under the control or direction of any religious denomination, or in which any denominational tenet or doctrine is taught.

Orphan asylums wherein no religious instruction is given during school hours not within prohibition. Sargent v. B. of Ed. of Rochester, 35 Misc. 321; affirmed, Appellate Division, 4th Dept.

ARTICLE X.

Sheriffs, clerks of counties, district attorneys and registers; Governor may remove.—Section 1. Sheriffs, clerks of counties, district attorneys and registers in counties having registers, shall be chosen by the electors of the respective counties, once in every three years and as often as vacancies shall happen, except in the counties of New York and Kings, and in counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, where such officers shall be chosen by the electors once in every two or four years as the Legislature shall direct. Sheriffs shall hold no other office and be ineligible for the next term after the termination of their offices. They may be required by law to renew their security, from time to time; and in default of giving such new security, their offices shall be deemed vacant. But the county shall never be made responsible for the acts of the sheriff. The Governor may remove any officer, in this section mentioned, within the term for which he shall have been elected; giving to such officer a copy of the charges against him, and an opportunity of being heard in his defense.

No term is fixed; shorter of two periods constitutes term. People ex rel. Eldred v. Palmer, 21 App. Div. 101.

Appointment or election of officers, not provided for by this Constitution.—§ 2. All county officers whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution shall be elected by the electors of the respective counties or appointed by the boards of supervisors, or other county authorities, as the Legislature shall direct. All city, town and village officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, shall be elected by the electors of such cities, towns and villages, or of some division thereof, or appointed by such authorities thereof, as the Legislature shall designate for that purpose. All other officers, whose election or appointment is not provided for by this Constitution, and all officers, whose offices may hereafter be created by law, shall be elected by the people, or appointed as the Legislature may direct.

Albany police bill allowing minority of common council to appoint police commissioners is invalid. Rathbone v. Wirth, 150 N. Y. 459.

The Legislature may attach a penalty to the refusal to accept office. City of Brooklyn v. Scholes, 31 Hun, 110.

A county officer is one required to reside in and perform duties in the county; the health officer of the city and county of New York is not one. Matter of Whiting, 2 Barb. 513.

A commissioner of loans is a county officer. Matter of Carpenter, 7 Barb. 30.

The Legislature may appoint commissioners to widen a highway by proceedings unlike those of commissioners of highways. People ex rel. v. McDonald, 69 N. Y. 362.

Duration of term.—§ 3. When the duration of any office is not provided by this Constitution it may be declared by law, and if not so declared, such office shall be held during the pleasure of the authority making the appointment.

Having been declared by the Legislature it cannot be extended so as to affect an incumbent. People ex rel. Fowler v. Bull, 46 N. Y. 57.

This does not apply to an office only directed to be first filled by the act of the appointing power constituted for the purpose. Bergen v. Powell, 30 Hun, 438.

Provision relating to tenure of office does not apply where tenure is fixed by statute. Matter of Jarvis v. Waterberry, 84 Hun, 462.

Time of election.—§ 4. The time of electing all officers named in this article shall be prescribed by law.

Vacancies in offices; how filled.—§ 5. The Legislature shall provide for filling vacancies in office, and n case of elective officers, no person appointed to fil a vacancy shall hold his office by virtue of such appointment longer than the commencement of the political year next succeeding the first annual election after the happening of the vacancy.

This does not operate to entitle the appointee to hold until the commencement of the next political year in all cases. People v. Keeler, 17 N. Y. 370.

It does not apply to county superintendents of the poor. People v. Comstock, 78 N. Y. 356.

Person appointed to fill vacancy in even number year holds office only until close of that political year. People ex rel. Howard v. Wende, 25 Misc. 330. See, also, 42 App. Div. 510.

Political year.—§ 6. The political year and legislative term shall begin on the first day of January; and the Legislature shall, every year, assemble on the first Wednesday in January.

Removal from office for misconduct, etc.—§ 7. Provision shall be made by law for the removal for misconduct or malversation in office of all officers, except judicial, whose powers and duties are not local or legislative and who shall be elected at general elections, and also for supplying vacancies created by such removal.

ished during the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed; nor shall he receive to his use any fees or perquisites of office or other compensation.

An act authorizing supervisors to pay a judge an additional compensation is valid as to one elected subsequently to such action of the supervisors; People v. Edmonds, 15 Barb. 529; otherwise as to judges in office at the time of the passage of the act. People ex. rel. Mitchell v. Haws, 32 id. 207.

ARTICLE XI.

State militia.—Section 1. All able-bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, who are residents of the State, shall constitute the militia, subject however, to such exemptions as are now, or may be hereafter created by the laws of the United States, or by the Legislature of this State.

Enlistment.—§ 2. The Legislature may provide for the enlistment into the active force of such other persons as may make application to be so enlisted.

Organization of militia.—§ 3. The militia shall be organized and divided into such land and naval, and active and reserve forces as the Legislature may deem proper, provided however that there shall be maintained at all times a force of not less than ten thousand enlisted men, fully uniformed, armed, equipped, disciplined and ready for active service. And it shall be the duty of the Legislature at each session to make sufficient appropriations for the maintenance thereof.

Does not forbid moneys other than legislative appropriations being applied to support of militia. Goedel v. Palmer, 15 App. Div. 86.

Act making compensation of janitors of armories a county charge is valid. Bryant v. Palmer, 152 N. Y. 412.

Appointment of military officers by the Governor.—§ 4. The Governor shall appoint the chiefs of the several staff departments, his aides-de-camp and military secretary, all of whom shall hold office during his pleasure, their commissions to expire with the term for which the Governor shall have been elected; he shall also nominate, and with the consent of the Senate appoint, all major-generals.

Manner of election of military officers prescribed by Legislature.—§ 5. All other commissioned and non-commissioned officers shall be chosen or appointed in such manner as the Legislature may deem most conducive to the improvement of the militia, provided, however, that no law shall be passed changing the existing mode of election and appointment unless two-thirds of the members present in each house shall concur therein.

Commissioned officers; their removal.—§ 6. The commissioned officers shall be commissioned by the Governor as commander-in-chief. No commissioned officer shall be removed from office during the term for which he shall have been appointed or elected, unless by the Senate on the recommendation of the Governor, stating the grounds on which such removal is recommended, or by the sentence of a court-martial, or upon the findings of an examining board organized pursuant to law, or for absence without leave for a period of six months or more.

Military board of examination is judicial body. People ex. rel. Smith v. Hoffman, 166 N. Y. 462.

ARTICLE XII.

Organization of cities and villages.—Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages, and to restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, so as to prevent abuses in assessments and in contracting debt by such municipal corporations.

Classification of cities; general and special city laws; special city laws; how passed by Legislature and accepted by cities. — § 2. All cities are classified according to the latest state enumeration, as from time to time made, as follows: The first class includes all cities having a population of two hundred and fifty thousand or more; the second class, all cities having a population of fifty thousand and less than two hundred and fifty thousand; the third class, all other cities. Laws relating to the property, affairs or government of cities, and the several departments thereof, are divided into general and special city laws; general city laws are those which relate to all the cities of one or more classes; special city laws are those which relate to a single city, or to less than all the cities of a class. Special city laws shall not be passed except in conformity with the provisions of this section. After any bill for a special city law, relating to a city, has been passed by both branches of the Legislature, the house in which it originated shall immediately transmit a certified copy thereof to the mayor of such city, and within fifteen days thereafter the mayor shall return such bill to the house from which it was sent, or if the session of the Legislature at which such bill was passed has terminated, to the Governor, with the mayor's certificate thereon, stating whether the city has or has not accepted the same. In every city of the first class, the mayor and in every other city, the mayor and the legislative body thereof concurrently, shall act for such city as to such bill; but the Legislature may provide for the concurrence of the legistative body in cities of the first class. The Legislature shall provide for a public notice and opportunity for a public hearing concerning any such bill in every city to which it relates, before action thereon. Such a bill if it relates to more than one city, shall be transmitted to the mayor of each city to which it relates, and shall not be deemed accepted unless accepted as herein provided, by every such city. Whenever any such bill is accepted as herein provided, it shall be subject as are other bills, to the action of the Governor. Whenever, during the session at which it was passed, any such bill is returned without the acceptance of the city or cities to which it relates, or within such fifteen days is not returned, it may nevertheless again be passed by both branches of the legislature, and it shall then be subject as are other bills, to the action of the Governor. In every special city law which has been accepted by the city or cities to which it relates, the title shall be followed by the words "accepted by the city," or "cities," as the case may be; in every such law which is passed without such acceptance, by the words "passed without the acceptance of the city," or "cities," as the case may be.

Act requiring certain premiums to be paid Exempt Firemen's fund is a "special city act." Exempt Firemen's Association v. Trustees, 34 App. Div. 138; Chrystal v. City of N. Y., 63 id. 93.

Election of city officers, when to be held; extension and abridgment of terms.—§ 3. All elections of city officers, including supervisors and judicial officers of inferior local courts, elected in any city or part of a city, and of county officers elected in the counties of New York and Kings, and in all counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, except to fill vacancies, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November in an odd-numbered year, and the term of every such officer shall expire at the end of an odd-numbered year. The terms of office of all such officers elected before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, whose successors have not then been elected, which under existing laws would expire with an even-numbered year, or in an odd-numbered year and before the end thereof, are extended to and including the last day of December, next following the time when such terms would otherwise expire; the terms of office of all such officers which under existing laws would expire in an even-numbered year, and before the end thereof, are abridged so as to expire at the end of the preceding year. This section shall not apply to any city of the third class, or to elections of any judicial officer, except judges and justices of inferior local courts.

Courts of justices of peace of Brooklyn are inferior local courts. Murphy v. Snitzpan, 15 Misc. 496.

ARTICLE XIII.

Oath of office.—Section 1. Members of the Legislature, and all officers executive and judicial, except such inferior officers as shall be by law exempted shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of New York, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of ———, according to the best of my ability;" and all such officers who shall have been chosen at any election shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take and subscribe the oath or affirmation above prescribed, together with the following addition thereto, as part thereof:

"And I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not directly or indirectly paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, or offered or promised to contribute any money, or other valuable thing as a consideration or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at the election at which I was elected to said office, and have not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding any such vote," and no other oath, declaration or test shall be required as a qualification for any office of public trust.

Act requiring excise commissioners to take test oath is void. Bishop v. Palen. 74 Hun, 289.

Official bribery and corruption.—§ 2. Any person holding office under the laws of this State who, except in payment of his legal salary, fees or perquisites, shall receive or consent to receive, directly or indirectly, anything of value or of personal advantage, or the promise thereof, for performing or omitting to perform any official act, or with the express or implied understanding that his official action or omission to act is to be in any degree influenced thereby, shall be deemed guilty of a felony. This section shall not affect the validity of any existing statute in relation to the offense of bribery.

Offer or promise to bribe.—§ 3. Any person who shall offer or promise a bribe to an officer, if it shall be received, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and liable to punishment, except as herein provided. No person offering a bribe shall, upon any prosecution of the officer for receiving such bribe, be privileged from testifying in relation thereto, and he shall not be liable to civil or criminal prosecution therefor, if he shall testify to the giving or offering of such bribe. Any person who shall offer or promise a bribe, if it be rejected by the officer to whom it was tendered, shall be deemed guilty of an attempt to bribe, which is hereby declared to be a felony.

Person bribed or offering a bribe may be a witness.—§ 4. Any person charged with receiving a bribe, or with offering or promising a bribe, shall be permitted to testify in his own behalf in any civil or criminal prosecution therefor.

Free passes, franking privileges, etc., not to be received by public officers; penalty.—§ 5. No public officer, or person elected or appointed to a public office, under the laws of this State, shall directly or indirectly ask, demand, accept, receive or consent to receive for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of another, any free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination in passenger, telegraph or telephone rates, from any person or corporation, or make use of the same himself or in conjunction with another. A person who violates any provision of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit his office at the suit of the Attorney-General. Any corporation, or officer or agent thereof, who shall offer or promise to a public officer, or person elected or appointed to a public office, any such free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination shall also be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to punishment except as herein provided. No person, or officer or agent of a corporation, giving any such free pass, free transportation, franking privilege or discrimination hereby prohibited, shall be privileged from testifying in relation thereto, and he shall not be liable to civil or criminal prosecution therefor if he shall testify to the giving of the same.

Railroad policeman prohibited from using free pass. Dempsey v. N. Y. C. & H. R. R. Co., 146 N. Y. 290.
Notary public is a public officer and prohibited from using free pass. People v. Rathbone, 145 N. Y. 454.
Such prohibition applies to use of pass received before provisions went into effect. People v. Rathbone, 145 N. Y. 434.
Railroad Commissioners, the clerks, etc., may use passes issued by Secretary of State. Matter of R. R. Commissioners, 11 Misc. 103.

Removal of district attorney for failure to prosecute; expenses of prosecutions for bribery.—§ 6. Any district attorney who shall fail faithfully to prosecute a person charged with the violation in his county of any provision of this article which may come to his knowledge, shall be removed from office by the Governor, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard in his defense. The expenses which shall be incurred by any county, in investigating and prosecuting any charge of bribery or attempting to bribe any person holding office under the laws of this State within such county, or of receiving bribes by any such person in said county, shall be a charge against the State, and their payment by the State shall be provided for by law.

ARTICLE XIV.

Amendments to Constitution, how proposed, voted upon and ratified.—Section 1. Any amendment or amendments to this Constitution may be proposed in the Senate and Assembly; and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on their journals, and the yeas and nays taken thereon, and referred to the Legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and shall be published for three months previous to the time of making such choice; and if in the Legislature so next chosen, as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each house, then it shall be the duty of the Legislature to submit each proposed amendment or amendments to the people for approval in such manner and at such times as the Legislature shall prescribe; and if the people shall approve and ratify such amendment or amendments by a majority of the electors voting thereon, such amendment or amendments shall become a part of the Constitution from and after the first day of January next after such approval.

Future constitutional conventions; how called; election of delegates; compensation; quorum; submission of amendments; officers; rules; vacancies; taking effect.—§ 2. At the general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and every twentieth year thereafter, and also at such times as the Legislature may by law provide, the question, "Shall there be a convention to revise the Constitution and amend the same?" shall be decided by the electors of the State; and in case a majority of the electors voting thereon shall decide in favor of a convention for such purpose, the electors of every senate district of the State, as then organized, shall elect three delegates at the next ensuing general election at which members of the Assembly shall be chosen, and the electors of the State voting at the same election shall elect fifteen delegates-at-large. The delegates so elected shall convene at the capitol on the first Tuesday of April next ensuing after their election, and shall continue their session until the business of such convention shall have been completed. Every delegate shall receive for his services the same compensation and the same mileage as shall then be annually payable to the members of the Assembly. A majority of the convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and no amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted for approval to the electors as hereinafter provided, unless by the assent of a majority of all the delegates elected to the convention, the yeas and nays being entered on the journal to be kept. The convention shall have the power to appoint such officers, employes and assistants as it may deem necessary, and fix their compensation and to provide for the printing of its documents, journal and proceedings. The convention shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, choose its own officers, and be the judge of the election, returns and qualifications of its members. In case of a vacancy, by death, resignation or other cause, of any district delegate elected to the convention, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the remaining delegates representing the district in which such vacancy occurs. If such vacancy occurs in the office of a delegate-at-large, such vacancy shall be filled by a vote of the remaining delegates-at-large. Any proposed constitution or constitutional amendment which shall have been adopted by such convention, shall be submitted to a vote of the electors of the State at the time and in the manner provided by such convention, at an election which shall be held not less than six weeks after the adjournment of such convention. Upon the approval of such constitutional amendments, in the manner provided in the last preceding section, such constitution or constitutional amendment, shall go into effect on the first day of January next after such approval.

Amendments of convention and Legislature submitted coincidently.—§ 3. Any amendment proposed by a constitutional convention relating to the same subject as an amendment proposed by the Legislature, coincidently submitted to the prople for approval at the general election held in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninty-four, or at any subsequent election, shall, if approved, be deemed to supersede the amendment so proposed by the legislature.

ARTICLE XV.

Time of taking effect.—Section 1. This Constitution shall be in force from and including the first day

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

THE EXECUTIVE.

PRESIDENT.....	THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York
Private Secretary to the President.....	WILLIAM LOEB, JR., of New York.

THE CABINET.

Secretary of State.....	JOHN HAY, of District of Columbia.
Secretary of the Treasury	LESLIE M. SHAW, of Iowa.
Secretary of War.....	WILLIAM H. TAFT, of Ohio.
Attorney-General.....	WILLIAM H. MOODY, of Massachusetts.
Postmaster-General....	GEORGE B. CORTELYOU, of New York.

Secretary of Agriculture.	JAMES WILSON, of Iowa.
Secretary of Commerce and Labor.....	VICTOR H. METCALF, of California.

The President receives a salary of $50,000 per annum; the Vice-President and members of the Cabinet each receive $8,000 per annum.

List of Members of the Fifty-Ninth Congress, 1905-1907.

BEGINNING MARCH 4, 1905. ENDING MARCH 3, 1907.

The Constitution requires nine years' citizenship to qualify for admission to the Senate, and seven years to the House of Representatives. An act, approved July 26, 1866, requires the Legislature of each State, which shall be chosen next preceding the expiration of any Senatorial term, on the second Tuesday after its first meeting, to elect a successor, each House nominating viva voce, and then convening in joint assembly to compare nominations. In case of agreement, such person shall be declared duly elected; and if they do not agree, then balloting to continue from day to day, at 12 M., during the session, until choice has been made. Vacancies are to be filled in like manner. The members of each House receive a salary of $5,000 per annum, and mileage at the rate of twenty cents per mile. For each day's absence, except when caused by sickness, eight dollars per diem may be deducted from the salary. The President pro tem. of the Senate receives the same compensation as the Vice-President. The Speaker of the House of Representatives receives $8,000 per year.

NEW YORK SENATORS IN THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

The Constitution of the United States provides that the Legislature of each State shall choose two Senators, who shall hold their office for the term of six years. Vacancies occurring during the recess of the Legislature are directed to be filled by the Executive until the next meeting of the Legislature. At the first session they were divided into three classes, so that one-third might be chosen every second year. A Senator must be an inhabitant of the State from which he is chosen, have been nine years a citizen of the United States, and have attained the age of thirty years. This State was not represented in the first session of the first Congress.

ARMS AND GREAT SEAL OF THE STATE.

ARTICLE III.

(Chap. 678, L. 1892, as amended by chap. 229, L. 1896, and chap. 229 L. 1901.)

SECTION 40. Description of the arms of the state.
41. Painted devices of arms in certain public places.
42. Prohibition of other pictorial devices.
43. Great seal of the state.
44. The use of the great seal.

§ 40. Description of the arms of the state and the state flag. The device of arms of this state, as adopted March sixteenth, seventeen hundred and seventy-eight, is hereby declared to be correctly described as follows:

Charge. Azure, in a landscape, the sun in fess, rising in splendor or, behind a range of three mountains, the middle one the highest, in base a ship and sloop under sail, passing and about to meet on a river, bordered below by a grassy shore fringed with shrubs, all proper.

Crest. On a wreath azure and or, an American eagle proper, rising to the dexter from a two-thirds of a globe terrestrial, showing the north Atlantic ocean with outlines of its shores.

Supporters. On a quasi compartment formed by the extension of the scroll.

Dexter. The figure of Liberty proper, her hair disheveled and decorated with pearls, vested azure, sandaled gules, about the waist a cinture or, fringed gules, a mantle of the last depending from the shoulders behind to the feet, in the dexter hand a staff ensigned with a Phrygian cap or, the sinister arm embowed, the hand supporting the shield at the dexter chief point, a royal crown by her sinister foot dejected.

Sinister. The figure of Justice proper, her hair disheveled and decorated with pearls, vested or, about the waist a cinture azure, fringed gules, sandaled and mantled as Liberty, bound about the eyes with a fillet proper, in the dexter hand a straight sword hilted or, erect, resting on the sinister chief point of the shield the sinister arm embowed, holding before her her scales proper.

AS RE-ESTABLISHED BY CHAPTER 190 OF THE LAWS OF 1882

Motto. On a scroll below the shield argent, in sable, excelsior.

State flag. The state flag is hereby declared to be blue, charged with the arms of the state in the colors as described in the blazon of this section.

§ 41. Painted devices of arms in certain public places.—The device of arms of the state corresponding to the blazon hereinbefore given, shall be painted in colors upon wood or canvas, and hung upon the walls of the executive chamber, the court of appeals, the office of the secretary of state and the senate and assembly chambers.

§ 42. Prohibition of other pictorial devices.—No pictorial devices other than the arms of the state shall be used in the public offices at the capital for letter headings and envelopes used for official business. Persons printing and circulating public documents under the authority of the state, when they use a vignette, shall place upon the title pages of the documents the standard device of the state arms without alterations or additions.

§ 43. Great seal of the state.—The secretary of state shall cause to be engraved upon metal two and one-half inches in diameter the device of arms of this state, accurately conformed to the description thereof, given in this article, surrounded with the legend, "The great seal of the state of New York." It alone shall be used as the great seal of the state, and the secretary of state shall have the custody thereof.

§ 44. The use of the great seal.—All such matters as have issued under the great seal of the state since March 16, 1778, shall continue to be issued under such seal, except copies of papers and records certified by the secretary of state or his deputy and authenticated under his seal of office.

THE GOVERNOR.

The Constitution of the State vests the executive power in the Governor. He is elected by the people and no person is eligible to the office, except a citizen of the United States, of the age of not less than thirty years, who shall have been five years, next preceding his election, a resident of the State. The Governor is Commander-in-Chief of the military and naval forces of the State, a trustee of certain of its public buildings, a trustee of the Soldiers' Home, Union College, Cornell University, Syracuse University. He is required to communicate, by message to the Legislature at every session, the condition of the State, and recommend such matters to them as he shall judge expedient. He is also required to transact all necessary business with the officers of government, civil and military, and expedite all such measures as may be resolved upon by the Legislature, and take care that the laws are faithfully executed. The Governor may convene the Legislature—or Senate only, in extraordinary sessions, and may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons after conviction, for all offenses except treason and cases of impeachment. He appoints (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), certain officers connected with the government of the State not elective by the people, and fills vacancies occurring therein during the recess of the Senate. He also may suspend or remove many officers under certain restrictions prescribed by statute. During the session of the Legislature he has the power to veto any bill passed by the Senate and Assembly. In the event of two-thirds of the members elected to each house agreeing to pass a vetoed bill the same becomes a law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. After the final adjournment of the Legislature, no bill becomes a law unless approved by the Governor within thirty days, and he has power to disapprove items in any bill appropriating money. The Governor holds his office for the term of two years and receives an annual salary of $10,000, and the use of a furnished executive residence. He is authorized to appoint a counsel, secretary, military secretary, clerks and messengers, and to a limited degree the Executive Chamber is an office of Record. The Privy Seal is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Executive Privy Seal."

Lieutenant-Governor.

The Lieutenant-Governor is elected by the people in the same manner and for the same term as the Governor. No person is eligible to the office, except a citizen of the United States, of the age of not less than thirty years, who shall have been five years, next preceding his election, a resident of the State. In case of the impeachment of the Governor, or his removal from office, death, inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, resignation, or absence from the State, the powers and duties of the office devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall cease. But when the Governor, with the consent of the Legislature, shall be out of the State in time of war, at the head of a military force thereof, he continues Commander-in-Chief of all the military forces of the State. If, during a vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die, or become incapable of performing the duties of his office, or be absent from the State, the President of the Senate acts as Governor until the vacancy is filled, or the disability shall cease. The Lieutenant-Governor is President of the Senate, but has only a casting vote therein. By virtue of that office he is a member of the Court for the Trial of Impeachments, but is prohibited from acting on the trial of an impeachment against the Governor. He is also a Commissioner of the Canal Fund, Land Office, a member of the Canal Board, a trustee of Union College, Cornell University, a trustee of the finished portions of the new Capitol, and trustee of several of the other public buildings of the State, and of the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. He has an annual salary of $5,000, and is prohibited from receiving any other compensation, fee or perquisite for any duty or service he may be required to perform by the Constitution or by law.

The Treasurer.

The Treasurer is custodian of all moneys paid into the State treasury; and moneys owing by the State are paid by him upon proper warrants. He is a Commissioner of the Land Office, a Commissioner of the Canal Fund, a member of the Canal Board, a member of the State Board of Canvassers, a trustee of Union College and a member of the State Board of Equalization of Assessments and is one of the officers to designate the State paper. No transfer of securities held by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department or by the Superintendent of the Banking Department is valid unless countersigned by the Treasurer. He is also vested by law with certain special powers in regard to the sale and conversion of securities held by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department in trust for insolvent insurance companies. Under the provisions of the Constitution the Treasurer may be suspended from office by the Governor during the recess of the Legislature, and until thirty days after the commencement of the next session of the Legislature, whenever it shall appear to him that the Treasurer has, in any particular, violated his duty. The Governor is authorized to appoint a competent person to discharge the duties of the office during a suspension of the Treasurer. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed a deputy, bookkeeper and necessary clerks. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription "State of New York—Treasurer."

Attorney-General.

It is the duty of the Attorney-General to prosecute and defend all actions and proceedings in which the State is interested, and have charge and control of all the legal business of the officers and departments of the State, except the military department. Whenever required by the Governor, he must attend a Court of Oyer and Terminer, or before the grand jury thereof, for the purpose of managing and conducting such criminal actions or proceedings as shall be specified in such requirement.

In addition to the duties with which he is charged as the law officer of the State, the Attorney-General is a Commissioner of the Land Office and of the Canal Fund, a member of the Canal Board, the Board of State Canvassers, the State Board of Equalization of Assessments, the State printing board, and an ex-officio member of the Board of Trustees of Union College, and the New York State Soldiers and Sailors' Home. The Attorney-General in person or by deputy attends each session of the Court of Claims on behalf of the State, and prepares all cases on the part of the State for hearing, argues the same when prepared, and causes testimony to be taken when necessary to secure the interest of the State. He prepares forms, files interrogatories, and superintends the taking of testimony in the manner prescribed by the court, and generally renders such service as may be necessary to further the interests of the State in all cases before that court and in the Court of Appeals on appeal from awards made by the Court of Claims. He is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $5,000, and is allowed a first, second and third deputy and necessary clerks. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Attorney-General."

State Engineer and Surveyor.

The office of Surveyor-General existed under the government of the Province of New Netherland and was continued throughout the colonial period and renewed under the State government in 1781. The Constitution of 1846 abolished the office of Surveyor-General and created that of State Engineer and Surveyor, to which no person is eligible who is not a practical engineer. He possesses all of the powers with which the Surveyor-General was formerly charged, except that of Commissioner of the Canal Fund, and in addition, he has general duties relative to the public lands and canals not required of the former officer. He is a Commissioner of the Land Office, a member of the Canal Board, the Board of State Canvassers, and the State Board of Equalization of Assessments. His Department has charge of all engineering in connection with State work; he appoints three Division Engineers and three Resident Engineers and all subordinate engineers. In 1886 the Legislature directed that the records and property of the State Survey be deposited in the office of the State Engineer and Surveyor. Prior to 1883, the railroads operated in the State were required to report the condition of their affairs to the State Engineer and Surveyor, but in that year the supervision of these corporations was transferred to the Board of Railroad Commissioners. The State Engineer and Surveyor is elected by the people for a term of two years, receives an annual salary of $5,000 and is allowed a deputy and necessary clerks. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—State Engineer and Surveyor."

Superintendent of Insurance.

The Superintendent of the Insurance Department receives his appointment from the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), and holds office for the term of three years and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. He has control and supervision of insurance companies transacting business in the State; and life and casualty companies of the State and those of other countries, and fire and marine insurance companies of foreign governments deposit securities with him for the protection of policyholders residing in the United States. Insurance companies organized under the laws of other States or countries are required to obtain renewals of their authority from the Superintendent each year. He is authorized to refuse admission to any company, corporation or association applying for permission to transact insurance business in the State, whenever, upon examination, the capital stock of the same is found to be impaired, and also whenever such refusal to admit shall best promote the interests of the people of this State. Such companies are prohibited from transacting business in the State until they first have, in writing, appointed the Superintendent to be the attorney of the company in and for this State, upon whom process in any action or proceeding may be served. The companies, corporations and associations under the supervision of the Superintendent are subject to visitation and examination by him or such persons as he may designate. Their condition and transactions are reported to him under oath at regular intervals, abstracts of which are made and transmitted to the Legislature in his annual reports to that body. The Superintendent is required to give a bond of $25,000 for the faithful discharge of his official duties and is prohibited from being directly or indirectly interested in any insurance company. His salary is fixed at $7,000 per year, and he is allowed deputies and necessary clerks to discharge the duties of the office. The entire expenses of the Department are paid by the corporations under its supervision. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Superintendent of the Insurance Department."

Superintendent of Banks.

An act of the Legislature, passed in 1782, prohibited any other bank within the limits of the State than the Bank of North America, but the Legislature subsequently chartered State Banks from time to time. In 1829 the Safety Fund was created and the appointment of three Bank Commissioners provided for. The Commissioners visited the banks of the State, examined into their condition and reported the results of their investigations to the Legislature each year. The appointment of a fourth Commissioner was authorized in 1840, and the banks organized under the General Banking Laws were placed under the supervision of the Bank Commissioners. The office was abolished in 1843, and the banks required to report to the Comptroller, which they continued to do until 1851, when the Bank Department was established, to which the books, documents and records pertaining to banks were transferred. The Superintendent of Banks receives his appointment from the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), and holds office for the term of three years, and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. He is vested with the general supervision of the banks operated under State laws; they report to him quarterly, and when issuing circulating notes, deposit security for their redemption. The savings banks of the State are also under his supervision, as are trust, loan, mortgage companies or associations, and corporations for the safe-keeping and guaranteeing personal property, each of which reports to him semi-annually. Building, Mutual Loan and Accumulating Fund Associations, and Co-operative Savings and Loan Associations, are also under his supervision and report annually. The institutions over which he has supervisory powers are subjected to regular examinations by him or such persons as he may designate. The Superintendent gives a bond of $50,000 for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office and is prohibited from being interested in any institution over which he has control, or as an individual banker. He makes digests of the reports of the various institutions, which are incorporated in his annual reports to the Legislature. With the exception of the charges made for the examination of the institutions under control of the Superintendent of Banks, the expenses of the department are paid by pro rata assessments on the institutions under his supervision. The expense of examinations is defrayed by the institutions examined.

The Superintendent has an annual salary of $7,000, and is allowed a deputy and necessary clerks and examiners. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Superintendent of Banks."

Railroad Commissioners.

Three Railroad Commissioners are appointed by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), who hold office for the term of five years. The Commissioners have general supervision of all railroads in the State, as to the manner in which they are maintained and operated with reference to the security and accommodation of the public. The Commissioners investigate all accidents resulting in loss of life or injury to persons, are charged with the supervision of the work of gradually abolishing grade crossings, and have the power to examine the books and affairs of any railroad corporation in the State. All such corporations report to the Board, and digests thereof are made which, with other information, are annually transmitted to the Legislature. The Commissioners each receive an annual salary of $8,000. The Board employs a secretary and necessary clerks, and engineering and electrical experts. The office is one of record and its expenses are paid by the railroads operated in the State. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Board of Railroad Commissioners."

State Commissioner of Excise.

The Liquor Tax Law, passed March 23, 1896, abolished all local boards of excise then existing in the State, and created a State Commissioner of Excise with State control of the liquor traffic under a new system of increased taxation, the rates of which for all localities are fixed by the law.

The Commissioner is appointed by the Governor for a term of five years and confirmed by the Senate. His salary is $5,000. He appoints one general deputy, one second deputy, and six special deputies, one each for the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, Brooklyn, Richmond and Queens, and one each for the counties of Erie and Monroe. These special deputies, together with the county treasurers in all other counties, under the direction of the Commissioner, issue the liquor tax certificates and collect the pay therefor.

The money collected, together with receipts for fines, penalties, forfeitures and transfers, is payable within ten days, one-half to the State and one-half to the city or town in which it is collected.

The Commissioner may designate attorneys to act with county treasurers or special deputy commissioners in the prosecution or defense of civil actions or proceedings brought under the Liquor Tax Law.

The Commissioner is authorized to appoint sixty special agents, who are his confidential representatives and who act strictly under the directions of the Commissioner. The agents assist in the collection of excise taxes and penalties, and, as required by the Commissioner, report evidence discovered by them in criminal cases to district attorneys, who, with the local police officers, are charged with the duty of prosecuting all criminal excise violations.

The Special Deputy Commissioners for the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, Brooklyn, Richmond and Queens, and for the counties of Erie and Monroe, are paid salaries in lieu of fees and commissions. The county treasurers in all other counties are paid by fees, one-half by the State and one-half by the city or town for whose benefit the tax is collected. The tax paid by common carriers, the vehicle tax paid by bottlers of malt liquors and the penalties on forfeited liquor tax bonds are collected by the State Commissioner and belong to the State.

Superintendent of Public Works.

The Superintendent of Public Works is appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and holds his office until the end of the term of the Governor by whom he is nominated, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He receives an annual compensation of $6,000. He is required by law to give security for the faithful execution of his office before entering upon the duties thereof. He is charged with the execution of all laws relating to the repair and navigation of the canals, and also of those relating to the construction and improvement of the canals except so far as the execution of the laws relating to such construction or improvement shall be confided to the State Engineer and Surveyor; subject to the control of the Legislature, he makes the rules and regulations for the navigation or use of the canals. The Superintendent is also charged with the expenditure of moneys appropriated by the Legislature for public improvements authorized by special acts. He may be suspended or removed from office by the Governor whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require, but in case of the removal of such Superintendent of Public Works from office, the Governor shall file with the Secretary of State a statement of the cause of such removal, and shall report such removal, and the cause thereof to the Legislature at its next session. He names a Deputy and appoints not more than three assistant superintendents, whose duties are prescribed by him, subject to modification by the Legislature, each of whom receives an annual compensation of $3,000. They hold their office for three years, subject to suspension or removal by the Superintendent of Public Works, whenever, in his judgment, the public interest shall so require. Any vacancy in the office of any such assistant superintendent is filled for the remainder of the term for which he was appointed, by the Superintendent of Public Works, but in case of the suspension or removal of any such assistant superintendent by him, he shall at once report to the Governor, in writing, the cause of such removal. All other persons employed in the care and management of the canals, except those in the department of the State Engineer and Surveyor, are appointed by the Superintendent of Public Works, and are subject to suspension or removal by him. The Superintendent of Public Works is a member of the Canal Board, of the River Improvement Commission, established by chapter 734 of the Laws of 1904; and of the commission created to investigate the electric towing systems applicable to the canals of the State. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, has power to fill a vacancy in the office of Superintendent of Public Works; if the Senate be not in session, he may grant a commission which shall expire twenty days after the beginning of the next succeeding session of the Senate.

Education Department.

[Chapter 40, of the Laws of 1904.]

The University of the State of New York is governed by a Board of eleven Regents, who are elected for a term of one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, and eleven years respectively, from the first day of April, 1904. The Regents are selected, so far as may be, from those who were in office prior to April 1, 1904, so that one shall be chosen from each judicial district. Their successors in office are elected for a full term of eleven years, by the Legislature, in the second week of February in each year, to serve from the succeeding first day of April after such election. If a vacancy in the Board of Regents occurs in a judicial district from which there remains one or more representatives on such Board, and there is at the same time a district unrepresented in such Board by a resident thereof, such vacancy shall be filled by the election of a Regent from such unrepresented district. A vacancy in the office of Regent for other cause than expiration of term of service shall be filled for the unexpired term by an election at the session of the Legislature immediately following such vacancy, unless the Legislature is in session when such vacancy occurs, in which case the vacancy shall be filled by the Legislature.

The Legislature elects the first Commissioner of Education in the same manner as members of the Board of Regents are now elected. The Commissioner receives an annual salary of $7,500, and $1,500 for his traveling and other expenses.

The Commissioner of Education first elected shall serve for a term of six years from April 1, 1904, unless sooner removed for cause by the Board of Regents, and the Legislature shall fill any vacancy that may occur during such period, for the balance of the term, and his successors in office after such term shall be appointed by the Board of Regents and shall serve during the pleasure of said Board.

The offices of Superintendent of Public Instruction and Secretary of the Board of Regents were abolished April 1, 1904, and the powers and duties of said offices are now exercised and performed by the Commissioner of Education. All the powers and duties of the Board of Regents in relation to the supervision of elementary and secondary schools, including all schools except colleges, technical and professional schools, are devolved upon the Commissioner of Education, who also acts as the executive officer of the Board of Regents; he also has power to create such departments as in his judgment are necessary and to appoint deputies and heads of such departments, subject to the approval of the State Board of Regents. Such heads of departments shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Education, such subordinates in their respective departments as in their judgment are necessary.

The Commissioner of Education, for the first year of his incumbency, subject to the approval of the State Board of Regents, fixes and determines the salaries of deputies, appointees, and employes within the appropriations made therefor and in accordance with existing laws.

The Board of Regents have power to establish such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry into effect the statutes of this State relating to education, and, subject to certain limitations, they possess all the powers formerly exercised by the old State Board of Regents.

All appropriations of public money made in support of the common school system, and all such appropriations in aid of secondary education, are apportioned by the Commissioner of Education and paid by the State Treasurer on the warrant of the Comptroller.

Commissioner of Agriculture

Chapter 338, Laws of 1893, provides for the appointment by the Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate) of a Commissioner of Agriculture, for a term of three years, at an annual salary of $4,000, and his necessary expenses, not to exceed $500. He may appoint a Director of Farmers' Institutes, and such clerks and assistant commissioners and employ such clerks, chemists, agents and counsel as he may deem necessary for the proper enforcement of such laws and the proper administration of the department who shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by him and the necessary expenses. He may also appoint and employ not more than five expert butter and cheese makers, who shall, under his direction, examine and inspect butter and cheese factories, and attend at agricultural fairs, societies and meetings designated by the Commissioner, to impart thereat information as to the best and most improved method of making butter and cheese and improving the quality thereof. The Commissioner of Agriculture, his clerks assistants, experts, chemists, agents and counsel employed by him shall have full access to all places of business, factories, farms, buildings, carriages, cars and vessels used in the manufacture, sale or transportation within the State of any dairy products, or any imitation thereof, or of any article or product with respect to which any authority is conferred by this chapter on such Commissioner. They may examine and open any package, can or vessel containing, or believed to contain, any article or product which may be manufactured, sold or exposed for sale in violation of law.

Agricultural Experiment Station.

[Chapter 338, Laws 1893.]

The Governor appoints the trustees of the State Agricultural Experiment Station, located at Geneva, N. Y., who hold office for the term of three years. The management of the affairs of the Station is intrusted to a Board of Control, composed of ten trustees, of which the Governor is one. Its purpose is to promote agriculture in its various branches by scientific investigation and experiments. The Board appoints a director, and employs chemists and other persons to carry on the work of the Station, which shall be under the direction and supervision of the Commissioner of Agriculture. Property acquired by the Board belongs to the State, and can be disposed of only as authorized by law. They elect from their number a President and appoint a Secretary and a Treasurer to serve during the pleasure of the Board. The members of the Board serve without compensation, but may be paid actual traveling expenses incurred while in attendance at meetings of the Board.

Forest, Fish and Game Commission.

[Chapter 94, Laws of 1901.]

The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoints a Forest, Fish and Game Commissioner whose term of office is four years, at an annual salary of $5,000 and necessary expenses. The Commissioner appoints a Deputy at a salary of $2,500 and necessary expenses. Commissioner and Deputy each give bond in the sum of $10,000 with sureties approved by the Comptroller. The functions of the Forest Preserve Board, which was merged with the Forest, Fish and Game Commission under this act, are vested in the Commissioner, and the Governor may designate two Commissioners of the Land Office to act with the Forest, Fish and Game Commissioner in acquiring forest lands for the State, with all the powers formerly possessed by the Forest Preserve Board; but no lands can be purchased without the consent of the Governor. The Commissioner has charge of the propagation and distribution of food and game fish and shell fish to supply the waters of the State; of the several hatchery stations from which the artificially propagated fish are supplied; of the enforcement of the laws for the protection of the fish and game of the State, and of the forest lands and any islands in Lake George; of the lands under water mapped out as oyster beds, and of the granting of franchises for such lands; and of the suppression of forest fires. He reports to the Legislature annually, making such recommendations as he deems proper. He appoints the necessary officials and employes to carry out the provisions of the law and requirements of the office.

State Department of Health.

[Chapter 29, Laws of 1901.]

The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoints a Commissioner of Health, who shall be a physician, a graduate of an incorporated medical college, of at least ten years' experience in the actual practice of his profession, and of skill and experience in public health duties and sanitary science. The term of office of the Commissioner first appointed shall expire on the 31st day of December, 1904, and the term of office of the Commissioner thereafter appointed shall be four years, beginning on the first day of January of the year in which he is appointed. The Commissioner of Health shall receive an annual salary of $3,500, and his expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of his official duties. He may employ such clerical and other assistants as are necessary for the proper performance of the powers and duties of the department, and fix their compensation within the amount appropriated therefor by the Legislature. He shall designate, in writing, one of his assistants who shall possess the powers and perform the duties of Commissioner of Health during his absence or inability to act, or during a vacancy in the office. The Commissioner of Health shall take cognizance of the interests of health and life of the people of the State, and of all matters pertaining thereto. He shall make inquiries in respect to the cause of disease, especially epidemics, and investigate the source of mortality and the effect of localities, employments and other conditions upon the public health. He shall obtain, collect and preserve such information relating to mortality, disease and health as may be useful in the discharge of his duties or may contribute to the promotion of health or the security of life in the State. He shall have general supervision of the State system of registration of births, marriages and deaths, and prevalent diseases, and regulate the transfer of dead bodies beyond the limits of counties in which deaths occur. The Commissioner of Health has cognizance of the interests of the public health, as it relates to the sale of food, drugs, spirituous, fermented and malt liquors and the adulteration thereof. The Governor may require the Commissioner of Health to examine into nuisances, and may declare to be public nuisances, matters and things certified to him to be such.

State Civil Service Commission.

(Chapters 370, 1899; 66, 195, 675, 1900; 521, 1901; 270, 355, 1902; 697, 1904, Laws of New York.)

The State Civil Service Commission consists of three Commissioners appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and not more than two of whom shall be adherents of the same political party. They shall hold no other office or place under the State government. The term of office of the Commissioners is not fixed by statute. The Commissioners each receive a salary of $3,000 a year and are paid their necessary traveling expenses.

The general powers and duties of the Commission are to prescribe, amend and enforce suitable rules, subject to the approval of the Governor, for carrying into effect the provisions of the Civil Service Law, and section 9 of article 5 of the Constitution; to make investigations concerning and report upon all matters touching the enforcement and effect of the provisions of the Civil Service Law, rules and regulations; to appoint municipal civil service commissioners in case the mayor for any reason fails to make the appointments; to remove municipal civil service commissioners for incompetency, inefficiency, neglect of duty or violation of the provisions of the Civil Service Law, rules or regulations; to approve municipal civil service rules and regulations, or amendments thereto, when prescribed by a municipal civil service commission and approved by the mayor; to make a report annually to the Governor for transmission to the Legislature.

The Commission is authorized to appoint a chief examiner, a secretary and such other officers, clerks and examiners as it may deem necessary.

The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—Civil Service Commission."

State Commission of Prisons.

[Chapter 12, Laws of 1901.]

The State Commission of Prisons consists of three members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor designating one of such members as president. The Commissioners are appointed for a term of four years, except that if at the time of his appointment any member of such Commission holds any other State office, his term shall expire on the expiration of his term as such other State officer

The general duties of the Commission are: To visit and inspect all institutions used for the detention of sane adults charged with or convicted of crime or detained as witnesses or debtors; to aid in securing the just, humane and economic administration of all such institutions; to aid in securing the erection of suitable buildings for such institutions, and to approve or reject plans for their construction or improvement; to investigate the management of all such institutions and the conduct of the officials thereof; to secure the best sanitary conditions of their buildings and grounds, and protect and preserve the health of the inmates; to collect statistical information in respect to such institutions, and ascertain and recommend a system of employing the inmates in harmony with the provisions of the Constitution relating to the employment of prisoners; to diversify the various industries in the prisons of the State so as to provide supplies for the State and political divisions thereof, and the institutions of the State and the political divisions thereof, and distribute such industries among the penal institutions; to annually procure estimates of all supplies required, and make rules for the diversification of industries and requisitions for supplies from public institutions; and to annually report to the Legislature all details of their work, with such recommendations as they deem proper.

The officers of the Commission are a President, Vice-President and a Secretary, elected annually; and the Commission is authorized to employ a clerk, a stenographer, and a general office assistant. The President receives $2,500 per annum; the other Commissioners receive their necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties as such Commissioners.

The Seal of the Commission is the Arms of the State of New York surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—State Commission of Prisons."

State Tax Commission.

The Governor (by and with the advice and consent of the Senate), appoints three State Tax Commissioners, who hold office for the term of three years, receiving each an annual salary of $5,000. They must officially visit every county in the State, at least once in two years; inquire into the methods of assessment and taxation; furnish local assessors with instruction, information and forms; hear proofs with reference to any matter within the line of their official duty; hear and determine appeals from local equalizations within the several counties; annually fix and determine the valuation of each Special Franchise subject to assessment in each city, town or tax district, and prepare an annual report to the Legislature, with such recommendations as they may deem advisable.

The State Tax Commissioners and the Commissioners of the Land Office constitute the State Board of Equalization, the duty of which is to equalize the assessments among the several counties of the State, and fix the aggregate for each county, upon which the State tax is levied. The State Board of Equalization meets at the office of the Secretary of State in Albany, on the first Tuesday of September in each year.

State Commission in Lunacy.

By the adoption in 1894 of the new Constitution, which took effect on January 1, 1895, the State Commission in Lunacy became a constitutional body, vested with exclusive jurisdiction over all institutions for the care and treatment of the insane, epileptics and idiots expressly excepted; the Legislature is empowered to confer additional powers and duties upon the Commission, but all laws existing at the date of the adoption of the Constitution, so far as they do not conflict with its provisions, are preserved. The Commission consists of three members appointed by the Governor (by and with the consent of the Senate) for terms of six years, the term of one Commissioner expiring at the end of each six years. By chapter 26 of the Laws of 1902, the Commission was substituted for local boards of managers in the charge and management of the State hospitals. No private institution for the insane can lawfully exist without a license from the Commission. By chapter 214 of the Laws of 1893, the Commission was given supervision over the expenditures of all State hospitals for the insane; no disbursements for any purpose can be made by these institutions except upon bimonthly estimates, which must be submitted to the Commission for revision and approval. The Commission may appoint agents, whose duty it shall be to secure from friends and relatives of patients who are legally liable for the cost of their support and are able to reimburse the State therefor, in whole or in part, the cost of such support. The State hospitals are required to report to the Commission annually, and the Commission is required to report to the Legislature. One Commissioner is required to be a physician, a citizen of the State, a graduate of a legally chartered medical college, of at least ten years' experience in the actual practice of his profession, and who has had five years' actual experience in the treatment of nervous and mental diseases, or who has had two years' experience in the care and treatment of the committed insane. He is by law the President of the Commission, and receives a salary of $7,500. The second Commissioner is required to be a lawyer of at least ten years' standing, a citizen of the State, and receives a salary of $5,000. The third Commissioner shall be a layman, and he receives a salary of $5,000. Each Commissioner receives $1,200 per annum in lieu of his traveling and other incidental expenses. The Commission from time to time with the approval of the Governor, Secretary of State and Comptroller fixes the annual salaries of the resident officers and employes of the State hospitals which shall be uniform for like services. The Commission is authorized by chapter 221, Laws of 1903, to appoint a medical inspector who shall visit and inspect all institutions for the insane. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—State Commission in Lunacy."

State Hospitals for the Insane.

[Chapter 545, Laws of 1896, as amended by chapter 26, Laws of 1902.]

The State hospitals are governed by the State Commission in Lunacy which has the general direction and control of the property of the institutions. The Commission establishes by-laws, rules and regulations relative to the appointment and duties of officers and employes of the hospitals and for the internal government of the same; maintains an effective inspection, for which purpose a majority of the board shall visit the hospitals at least every six months; appoints for each hospital a superintendent who shall be a well-educated physician, a graduate of an incorporated medical college, and who shall have had not less than five years' actual experience in an institution for the care of the insane; the superintendent acting as treasurer shall keep all books, records and papers relating to the financial transactions. The superintendent of each hospital is its chief executive officer, and, subject to the regulations of the Commission, he has the general superintendence of the buildings, grounds and property and the direction and control of all persons therein. The superintendents of all the hospitals meet whenever called upon, at the office of the Commission in Lunacy, to consult with the Commission upon matters relating to the care and maintenance of the State hospitals. The Commission also appoints the stewards of the State hospitals. Under the provisions of chapter 26, of the Laws of 1902, the Governor appoints a Board of Visitation for each State hospital consisting of five members, who shall reside within the hospital district of the hospital for which they are appointed. The members of the Board of Visitation first appointed shall be appointed for such terms that the office of one member shall expire each year, and annually thereafter one member shall be appointed for a full term of five years. The whole board or a majority of its members must visit each hospital at least monthly, forwarding to the Governor and to the Commission their recommendations as to needed improvements. The members of these boards receive necessary traveling expenses, but no salaries.

State Board of Charities.

By article VIII of the Constitution of the State of New York, adopted in 1894, the State Board of Charities, created in 1867, became a constitutional body January 1, 1895. Such Constitution provides that the Board shall visit and inspect all institutions, whether State, county, municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, which are of a charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory character, including institutions for epileptics and idiots, and all reformatories (save those in which adult males, convicted of a felony shall be confined), and excepting institutions for the care and treatment of the insane, and for the detention of adults charged with or convicted of crime, or detained as witnesses and debtors.

The Constitution also provides that the members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and all existing laws relating to institutions above mentioned, and to their supervision and inspection, in so far as such laws are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Constitution, shall remain in force, and that the Legislature may confer upon the Board any additional powers. It further provides that while payments by counties, cities, towns and villages to charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory institutions, wholly or partly under private control, for care, support and maintenance, may be authorized but shall not be required by the Legislature, no such payments shall be made for any such inmate of such institution who is not received and retained therein pursuant to rules established by the State Board of Charities.

The Commissioners comprising the Board are twelve in number, and are appointed for the term of eight years, one from each judicial district of the State, one additional member from the county of Kings, and three additional members from the county of New York. The Commissioners are required to reside in the districts from which they are respectively appointed, and no Commissioner can act as such while a trustee, director or other administrative officer of any of the institutions subject to the visitation and inspection of the Board.

The principal duties of the Board are to visit, inspect and maintain a general supervision of all institutions, societies or associations which are of a charitable, eleemosynary, correctional or reformatory character, whether State or municipal, incorporated or not incorporated, made subject to its jurisdiction by the Constitution and the statutes. Other duties are to frame rules for the reception and retention of inmates and to approve or disapprove the organization and incorporation of all institutions which are or shall be subject to the supervision and inspection of the Board.

The chief officers of the Board are a President and a Vice-President, elected annually from its members.

Each Commissioner receives as compensation ten dollars for each day's attendance at meetings of the Board or any of its Committees not to exceed $500 in a year to any Commissioner, and is also paid his expenses while engaged, and his outlay for any aid or assistance rendered, in the performance of his duties. The Board is required to report to the Legislature annually. The Seal of the office is the Arms of the State, surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York—The State Board of Charities."

Advisory Board of Consulting Engineers, Improved Canals

[Chapters 147, Laws of 1903, and 200, Laws of 1904]

Section 8 of chapter 147, Laws of 1903, provides that the Governor may employ, at a compensation to be fixed by him, five expert civil engineers to act as an advisory board of consulting engineers, whose duty it shall be to advise the State Engineer and the Superintendent of Public Works, to follow the progress of the canal improvement work and from time to time to report thereon to the Governor, the State Engineer and the Superintendent of Public Works, as they may require or the board deem proper and advisable.

Chapter 200, Laws of 1904, provides that the terms of office of the members of the advisory board shall continue during the construction of the work authorized by the act of 1903. Vacancies in the offices of such engineers shall be filled by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate for terms beginning with the date of appointment and continuing during the construction of such work.

River Improvement Commission.

[Chapter 734, Laws of 1904.]

Chapter 734, Laws of 1904, establishes a permanent commission for the regulation of the flow of water-courses in this State in aid of the public health and safety, to be known as the River Improvement Commission. The State Engineer and Surveyor, the Attorney-General, the Superintendent of Public Works, the Forest, Fish and Game Commissioner, and one commissioner who shall be a civil engineer appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall constitute the Commission. The term of the member of the Commission not holding any other State office shall be five years and he shall not receive a salary, but shall be paid his necessary expenses and may also receive a per diem compensation to be fixed by his associate members of the Commission, subject to the approval of the Governor, for time actually employed by him in the work of the Commission. The Commission is authorized to employ a secretary and such engineers, stenographers, clerks and other subordinates as the duties imposed upon them may require, and to fix and pay the reasonable salaries and expenses of such officers, and shall report annually to the Legislature. The sum of $10,000 is appropriated for the use of said Commission. The Commissioner appointed by the Governor is: Wallace C. Johnson, Niagara Falls, December 5, 1904.

Board of Statutory Consolidation.

[Chapter 664, Laws of 1904.]

By the provisions of Chapter 664, of the Laws of 1904, a Board of Statutory Consolidation was created composed of five members, whose successors are to be appointed by the Governor. The duty of such board shall be to direct and control the revision, simplification, arrangement and consolidation of the statutes of the State. The board shall cause its work to be printed from time to time, and distribute copies of the same to members of the legislature, judges of the courts and such other persons as it may see fit, for the purpose of obtaining their suggestions and advice. It shall report annually to the legislature upon the progress of the work and shall make its final report of the statutes so consolidated for enactment to the legislature of nineteen hundred and seven. The members of said board shall serve without compensation, but shall receive their necessary expenses and disbursements incurred in the discharge of their duties either at the capitol or elsewhere. They may designate and employ such clerical help as they deem necessary and fix their compensation and expenses.

Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals succeeded the Court for the Trial of Impeachments and the Correction of Errors, so far as the correction of errors is concerned. As first organized, under the Constitution of 1846, it was composed of eight Judges, four of whom were chosen by the electors of the State for a term of eight years, and four were elected from the class of Justices of the Supreme Court having the shortest term to serve. The Judges elected by the people were so classified that an election occurred every odd year. The Judges selected from the Supreme Court were taken each even year from the First, Third, Fifth and Seventh districts, and each odd year from the Second, Fourth, Sixth and Eighth districts, and served one year. The Judge elected by the State at large having the shortest term to serve acted as Chief Judge. The clerk was elected by the people for the term of three years. The reporter was appointed by the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and Attorney-General for three years.

The article in relation to the Judiciary, framed by the Convention of 1867-8, reorganized the Court of Appeals. This article was approved by the people at the general election held in 1869. In accordance with its provisions, the Court of Appeals is now composed of a Chief Judge and six Associate Judges, who "hold their office for the term of fourteen years, from and including the first day of January after their election," which was the year 1871. The first Judges were elected at a special election held in 1870. At the first election of Judges each elector voted for the Chief Judge and four only of the Associate Judges. Vacancies are to be filled at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs, and until so filled, by the Governor and Senate, or by the Governor alone, if the Senate is not in session. The Constitution of 1894 continued the Court of Appeals as it thus existed, but limited its jurisdiction, except where the judgment is of death, to the review of questions of law.

Section 7 of article VI of the Constitution, as amended in 1899, provides that whenever and as often as a majority of the Judges of the Court of Appeals shall certify to the Governor that said court is unable, by reason of the accumulation of causes pending therein, to hear and dispose of the same with reasonable speed, the Governor shall designate not more than four Justices of the Supreme Court to serve as Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals. The Justices so designated shall be relieved from their duties as Justices of the Supreme Court and shall serve as Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals until the causes undisposed of in said court are reduced to 200, when they shall return to the Supreme Court. The Governor may designate Justices of the Supreme Court to fill vacancies. No Justice shall serve as Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals except while holding the office of Justice of the Supreme Court, and no more than seven Judges shall sit in any case.

No unanimous decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court that there is evidence supporting or tending to sustain a finding of fact or a verdict not directed by the court, shall be reviewed by the Court of Appeals. Except where the judgment is of death, appeals may be taken, as of right, to said court only from judgments or orders entered upon decisions of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, finally determining actions or special proceedings, and from orders granting new trials on exceptions, where the appellants stipulate that upon affirmance judgment absolute shall be rendered against them. The Appellate Division in any department may, however, allow an appeal upon any question of law which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

The Legislature may further restrict the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals and the right of appeal thereto but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

Judges are prohibited, by the Constitution, from holding any other office or place of public trust; from exercising any power of appointment to public office, and from practicing as attorney or counselor, or acting as referee. They are removable by concurrent resolution of both houses of the Legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each branch concur therein.

The court is almost continually in session, taking recess as it may from time to time order.

The court has full power to correct or reverse the decisions of the Supreme Court. Five judges constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of four is necessary to pronounce a judgment. If such concurrence be not had, the case must be reheard; but no more than two rehearings can be had, and if then four Judges do not concur, the judgment of the court below is affirmed. The Legislature may authorize the judgments, decrees and decisions of any inferior local court of record established in a city, having original civil jurisdiction, to be removed for review directly into the Court of Appeals.

The salary of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals is $10,500, and of the Associate Judges $10,000, with an additional allowance of $3,700 each for expenses.

A Clerk is appointed by the court to hold office during its pleasure. He gives a bond to the people of the State in the penalty of $25,000, with two sufficient sureties, for the faithful performance of his duties, which bond is filed with the Comptroller. He appoints a deputy, by writing under his hand and seal, who takes the oath of office, and acts as Clerk in case of a vacancy, or when the Clerk is absent, or incapable of performing the duties. The salary of the Clerk is $5,000. He keeps his office in the Capitol at Albany. In it are deposited the records of the former Court of Errors, Supreme Court and Court of Chancery.

The court appoints its Reporter. He has a salary of $5,000.

Supreme Court.

The Constitution of 1894 continued the Supreme Court as it then existed, with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals as is or may be prescribed by law, and also vested in the Supreme Court the jurisdiction theretofore exercised by the Superior Court of the city of New York, the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of New York, the Superior Court of Buffalo, and the City Court of Brooklyn, which courts were abolished from and after January 1, 1896, and the judges thereof and their successors in office becoming Justices of the Supreme Court.

The general jurisdiction in law and equity, which the Supreme Court possesses under the Constitution, includes all the jurisdiction which was possessed and exercised by the Supreme Court of the colony of New York at any time, and by the Court of Chancery in England on the fourth day of July, 1776, with the exceptions, additions and limitations created and imposed by the Constitution and laws of the State. This general jurisdiction in law and equity includes all actions civil and criminal.

The State is divided into eight judicial districts. There are twenty-two Justices in the first district; twelve in the second; six each in the third, fourth and sixth districts; seven each in the fifth and seventh districts; and ten in the eighth—seventy-six in all. Justices are elected by the voters of their respective districts. Although elected in districts, the jurisdiction of each Justice extends to every part of the State. The term of office is fourteen years from the first day of January next after their election, but no Justice can hold his office longer than until the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. They can hold no other office or public trust. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of the term of office, the same shall be filled for a full term at the next general election happening not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if the Senate shall be in session, or if not in session, the Governor may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

The salaries of the Justices are $6,000 per annum; besides which they receive an annual allowance of $1,200 each for expenses (except in the first district). The Justices of the second district (except those residing in the county of Kings) each receive an additional annual allowance of $2,500. In New York and Kings counties the Justices each receive an additional allowance which is paid by the respective counties.

The State is also divided into four Judicial Departments.

There is an Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in each Judicial Department, consisting of seven Justices in the first department, and of five Justices in each of the other departments. In each department four Justices constitute a quorum, and three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five Justices sit in any case. From all the Justices elected to the Supreme Court the Governor designates the presiding Justice and the other Justices who shall constitute the Appellate Division in each department. The presiding and a majority of the other Justices must reside in the department. The presiding Justices serve during their respective terms of office. The other Justices for terms of five years or the unexpired portions of their respective terms, if less than five years. No Justice of the Appellate Division can exercise any of the powers of a Justice of the Supreme Court, other than those of a Justice out of court, and those pertaining to the Appellate Division, or to the hearing and decision of motions submitted by consent of counsel. The Appellate Court is located respectively in the first department in New York city; in the second department in Brooklyn; in the third department in Albany, and in the fourth department in Rochester, but terms thereof may be held elsewhere in such departments, whenever in the discretion of the Justices thereof, respectively, public interests may require.

The Appellate Divisions have power to appoint and remove a reporter, and the Justices of the Appellate Division in each department have power to appoint and remove a clerk.

The county clerks of the several counties are clerks of the Supreme Court in their respective counties, and the seals of such county clerks are the seals of the court.

APPELLATE DIVISIONS.

Court of Claims.

The Court of Claims is a court of record, and on March 9, 1897 succeeded the Board of Claims with all the powers and jurisdiction of such board. It has jurisdiction to hear and determine private claims against the state which shall have accrued within two years before the filing thereof, but it has no jurisdiction of a claim submitted by law to any other tribunal or officer for audit or determination. It may also hear and determine any claim on the part of the state against a claimant.

The court is composed of three judges, who are appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term of six years. The governor, by order, designates one of the judges as a presiding judge, who shall act as such during his term. Each judge receives an annual compensation of $5,000, and his necessary traveling expenses. The court shall appoint, and may at pleasure remove a clerk, a deputy clerk, a stenographer and a marshal.

The court is directed by law to hold four sessions each year at the Capitol in the city of Albany, and it may also hold adjourned or special sessions at such other places in the state as it may determine. The session room of the court is on the fourth floor of the Capitol, and the clerk's office is in adjoining rooms where the court's records are kept. It establishes rules for its government and the regulation of practice therein. Its determination upon a claim is by a judgment entered in a judgment book kept by the clerk.

The Attorney-General represents the state before the court in all proceedings relating to claims. The seal of the court is the arms of the state surrounded by the inscription, "State of New York, Court of Claims."

State Board of Law Examiners.

The State Board of Law Examiners consists of three members of the bar, of at least ten years' standing, who shall be appointed from time to time by the Court of Appeals, and shall hold office as members of such board for a term of three years. Such court shall prescribe rules providing for a uniform system of examination which shall govern such board of law examiners in the performance of its duties, and shall fix the compensation of its members. There shall be examinations of all persons applying for admission to practice as attorneys and counsellors-at-law at least twice in each year in each judicial department, and at such other times and places as the Court of Appeals may direct. Every person applying for such examination shall pay such fee, not to suceed ten dollars, as may be fixed by the Court of Appeals to cover the cost of such examination. Such board shall render during the month of January an annual account of all their receipts and disbursements to the Court of Appeals.

Each member of the board receives a compensation of $2,000 per year, and, in addition, such further sum as the Court of Appeals may direct, and a sum not exceeding $2,000 per year shall be allowed for necessary disbursements of the board.

Staff of the Commander-in-Chief.

The staff of the Governor shall consist of one Adjutant-General of the grade of Brigadier-General, one Military Secretary of grade not above that of Colonel, and sixteen Aides-de-Camp, all of whom shall be appointed by the Governor and hold office during his pleasure, and whose term of office shall expire with the term of office of the Governor appointing them. Four of the Aides-de-Camp may be appointed by the Governor of such grade as he may desire (but not above that of Colonel). The other twelve Aides-de-Camp shall be appointed by the Governor from the commissioned officers of the National Guard and Naval Militia in active service of grade below that of Colonel, and their appointment shall operate as a commission as Aide-de-Camp, but shall not add to the actual grade of the officers so appointed. Officers so appointed as Aides-de-Camp shall not be relieved from duty with their respective organizations, but shall perform all duty pertaining thereto, except when actually on duty as Aides-de-Camp under the orders of the Governor.

Through the Adjutant-General is the regular channel of communication with the Commander-in-Chief, and all orders, special instructions and general regulations issued by the Commander-in-Chief are prepared and published by the Adjutant-General. It is the duty of the Adjutant-General to keep in his office the register of all the officers of the land and naval forces of the State, to prepare and issue the necessary books and blanks required to carry out the provisions of the Military Code, to attend to the purchasing, safe-keeping, repairing and issuing of the military and naval property of the State, and to keep account of all expenses necessarily incurred, including pay of officers and enlisted men, subsistence of militia, transportation of the militia, and of all military and naval property of the State.

By an act passed April 16, 1827, the Adjutant-General was directed to prepare a seal to be used on military commissions, certificates or other official documents, and all copies of records or papers in his office, duly certified under the said seal, are made evidence in all cases, the same as if the originals are produced.

GOVERNOR'S STAFF.

State Finances.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

The cash balance in the Treasury of all the funds on the 30th of September, 1904, was $9,840,795.59, distributed as follows:

General Fund	$7,997,213 58
Canal Fund, including uninvested moneys of Canal Debt Sinking Fund	1,334,965 20
Trust Funds, including Forest Preserve Fund	508,616 81
	$9,840,795 59

TRANSACTIONS OF THE TREASURY.

The balance in the Treasury to the credit of all funds of the State on October 1, 1903, was		$10,192,629 34
The receipts from all sources including transfers from the several funds, during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1904, were	$29,297,435 71
Deduct transfers made in the adjustment of accounts between the several funds	3,748,472 73
Actual receipts in the Treasury		25,548,962 98
		$35,741,592 32
The payments for all purposes, including transfers to the several funds, during the year amounted to	$29,649,269 46
Deduct transfers made in the adjustment of accounts between the several funds	3,748,472 73
Actual payments from the Treasury		25,900,796 73
Balance in the Treasury to the credit of all funds September 30, 1904		$9,840,795 59

WORKING BALANCE IN THE TREASURY.

The following statement shows the working balance in the Treasury at the close of the past fiscal year, after crediting all sums receivable and debiting all sums payable for said year, which balance was available to meet demands against the treasury upon presentation at the beginning of the new fiscal year:

Payments on appropriations of 1904, made prior to September 30, 1904:

General Fund	$2,442,072 93
Canal Fund, less amount due Canal Debt Sinking Fund	268,851 84

Add transfer from General Fund revenue, to make good deficiencies in the revenue of various trust funds, as provided in the Finance Law		$179,065 12
Add balance due from county treasurers on account of State tax of 1903		3,114 79
Add cash on hand September 30, 1904		9,840,795 59
		$12,733,900 27
Deduct balances of appropriations made prior to 1904, and available September 30, 1904:
General Fund	$2,844,827 92
Canal Fund	108,871 55
Amount belonging to Canal Debt Sinking Fund	509,347 37
Amount belonging to Trust Funds	508,616 81
		3,971,663 65
Working balance September 30, 1904		$8,762,236 62

The " estimated surplus " for this year as stated in the report of 1903, was $7,130,859. The increase over the estimate results from exceptional collections by the transfer tax bureau from four large estates, viz.: Smith, $973,348, Whitney, $222,222, Delano, $207,544 and Belden, $156,350, a total of $1,559,464, which is practically the amount of increase shown. The estimates of transfer taxes for a future year are likely to prove inaccurate as no ratio or average can be determined of the valuation of estates of decedents to the number of deaths for a fixed term. The extremes of property ownership are so irregularly placed among the population that no definite calculation can be made.

TRUST FUNDS.

The capital of the several trust funds belonging to the State in cash and securities at the close of the fiscal year ending September 30, 1904, was as follows:

General repairs of arsenals, armories and rifle ranges and commissioners' expenses	787,027 79
Total	$5,341,423 38

In addition to the above schedule covering the expenditures by the State for building and furnishing normal schools, the following amounts were authorized to be raised by bonding the various localities, viz.:

Brockport, by chapter 21, Laws of 1867	$50,000 00
Cortland, by chapter 199, Laws of 1867	50,000 00
Fredonia, by chapter 223, Laws of 1867	100,000 00
Geneseo, by chapter 195, Laws of 1867, and chapter 601, Laws of 1868	115,000 00
Potsdam, by chapter 6, Laws of 1867, and chapter 68, Laws of 1868	78,000 00
	$393,000 00

By chapter 170, Laws of 1867, the common council of the city of Oswego was empowered to convey to the State the normal school buildings, with the ground, apparatus, books, furniture and appurtenances, so that the original cost of this school is not included in the foregoing schedule. The same might be said of the Oneonta, New Paltz and Jamaica normal schools.

It is a difficult matter to obtain the exact cost of the various arsenals and amories in the State, in view of the fact that in many instances expenditures were made by the various localities. This is particularly true of the arsenals in New York, Brooklyn and Buffalo.
